Explanation of Vote.

Supervisor Stanton: I am opposed to this; I am opposed to the entire proceeding. I believe it is a new proceeding in the matter of building bridges. I do not believe it has happened in any other bridge that has been built around San Francisco. Everything that you are asking of these engineers could be taken care of by law, possibly with the exception of picking a location. The height of your bridge will have to be according to the Government's ruling and regulations. You cannot build it lower. The footage will be placed according to the wishes of the Government and the State Engineer, that is the law. Whether we want an automobile, interurban or transcontinental, will, in the final, come back and have to be settled on by the Board of Supervisors. Some Supervisors said that we will take this engineers' report back to Washington and we will all get behind it, and if the Government turns it down, then we will come back to San Francisco and we will do the next best thing. In my way of thinking, it is working backwards. The Government have had the hearings, and brought everybody in that was in any way interested, and had them here for days. And in a telegram by Mr. Davis to Mr. Carter, a copy of which I have in my pocket, and you have all heard, the Government stated up to the present time there has not been any new evidence presented that would lead them to change their minds. They have been considering this since 1921, and they surely are more familiar with the Bay, having been surveying it for many a year back, they are more familiar with the maritime conditions, they are more familiar with the Navy and the seas, they have engineers of some standing, and, after hearing all the evidence, they have told you where you could build a bridge once. They held hearings for modification of their ruling, and today they have all the facts and data before them, and are ready to present it to San Francisco, for their action. And by some sort of hocus pocus we are going to get three engineers, one from New York and one from some other place, and one from San Francisco, that are coming in here, and in twenty days tell us, most of us born and raised in San Francisco, just where the best place to build the bridge is. There must be something wrong with our intelligence. There surely must be. It is something that has never been done before. If we select a location, and we have a City Engineer that is going to act with these engineers when they come, and I venture to say, will give them most of the data that they are going to act on—surely, if we could not be guided by him in some way, a man who is right on the scene, with a corps of engineers who are right on the scene, to select where would be the proper place to start our bridge from, then there is something wrong with San Francisco. You can take all the engineers that came here and spoke before the Board of Supervisors, and all are prominent, and each and every one of them has gotten up and given you a different reason why the bridge should be built in a different place. And they are just as big engineers, and some of them have built considerably more bridges than those that you are bringing in here. And after it is all said and done, and after you have spent your money, then you are going back to the War Department and get their decision. And there has not been a thing that anybody here can offer that has not been already said, that will be in any way new to the ears of those who have already given their decision, who have had it ready for the last six months and are willing to hand it out to you, and save the City of San Francisco $25,000. Now, Mr. Chairman, it would be different if San Francisco was starting out to build a bridge and she wanted advice as to how to build the bridge and what it should be. But these proponents, and if you intend to give any of them a franchise, have their engineers, competent—I believe some of them have built a number of hundreds of bridges—and they are not going out there and stick something up that is going to fall down, or that is not going to be the right height above the water level, or that is not going to have the proper footage. And the reason that they are not going to do it, primarily, is because the Government is not going to permit it. Before a franchise can be granted, the data has to go back to the War Department, and they will tell you just exactly what you can do. In the matter of the Carquinez bridge, as I have been informed, they were told that the footings were not just in the right place, and they were ordered to move them a little one way or the other, and when the thing is all said and done, regardless of what your engineers tell you, you are going to then abide by the ruling of the war Department, if you want a bridge. I am telling you now, and the time is going to come when I will be able to get up here and say: "I told you so." You mark what I am saying. I brand it a wild extravagance.

Action Deferred.

Whereupon, the following resolutions and motions were, on motion of Supervisor Shannon, continued until May 9, 1927, at 2 p. m.:

Presented by Supervisor McSheehy:

Whereas, there are now pending before the Board of Supervisors various applications for franchises to construct and operate toll bridges over and across the Bay of San Francisco, between the City and County of San Francisco and the County of Alameda; and

Whereas, Section 4 of the Act of 1881 provides "That whenever the Supervisors of any county or counties desire to erect a bridge on any public highway, or to grant the privilege so to do, to any individual or corporation, across a navigable stream, said board or boards shall notify the State Engineer of such purpose, and of the precise point where said bridge is to be located,"; and

Whereas, a proper site for a bridge is one the San Francisco terminal of which will be within easy access of the business district of the City, and at the same time sufficiently removed from the main arteries of the City not to unduly congest the same, and the Alameda terminus of which will be easily accessible to traffic of all kinds, especially suburban railway traffic from all parts of the County of Alameda; and

Whereas, the area from and including Rincon Hill on the north, and to and including Sixteenth street on the south, in the City and County of San Francisco, and the area from and including Seventh, Bay, Eighth and Pine streets in the City of Oakland on the north, and to and including Pacific avenue in Alameda on the south, is a district well adapted to and possessing the necessary facilities and conditions for the terminals of a transbay bridge; and

Whereas, in order to meet the requirements of the shipping interests both in San Francisco and Oakland, and to the end that bay navigation shall be interfered with as little as possible, a high level bridge, the structure of which shall have a clearance of at least one hundred and thirty-five feet above the waters of the Bay, is best suited for said transbay bridge; and

Whereas, the City of San Francisco is by its charter committed to public ownership and operation of all public utilities, and that the City of San Francisco should itself construct, own and operate said bridge, if it is possible to do so; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the area from and including Rincon Hill on the north and to and including Sixteenth street on the south, in the City and County of San Francisco, and the area from and including the blocks bounded by Seventh, Bay, Eighth and Pine streets in the City of Oakland on the north, and to and including Pacific avenue in Alameda on the south, be and the same is hereby declared to be the area that is best suited for the respective terminals of a transbay bridge between the City and County of San Francisco and the County of Alameda, and that a high level bridge, the structure of which will have a clearance of at least one hundred and thirty-five feet above the navigable waters of the Bay and adequate length of span will least interfere with bay navigation and with the shipping interests thereon, and is hereby recommended as the type of bridge to be selected.

And be it Further Resolved, That a ruling of the War Department of the United States be forthwith sought as to whether a bridge may be constructed of the type, and with terminals located in the districts above set forth, and for that purpose a committee composed of two members of this Board to be selected by the Chairman of its Finance Committee, and the City Engineer and the City Attorney, or his representative, forthwith proceed to Washington for the purpose of urging the War Department to grant permission for the construction and maintenance of a high level bridge, adequate in height and in length of span, between terminals in the aforesaid area. And be it

Further Resolved, That the City of San Francisco is and by its charter committed to public ownership and operation of all public utilities, and that it should itself construct, own and operate said bridge, if it is possible to do so; and be it advice and information from the War Department, that the hearing on all pending applications for franchises for transbay bridges be continued from time to time, to the end that this Board will not lose jurisdiction to pass upon them.

Supervisor Havenner presented:

"Resolved, That the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco proceed forthwith to take the necessary legal steps, in accordance with the advice of the City Attorney, to form a bridge district under the State Bridge and Highway District Law, consisting of San Francisco and Alameda Counties, for the purpose of financing, constructing and operating a bridge across San Francisco Bay under public ownership."

Supervisor Roncovieri presented:

"Whereas, financial problems connected with the building of a bridge across the Bay are various and extremely involved, and absolutely fundamental in arriving at a favorable decision of policy as between a bridge built by public funds, or one to be built by private capital; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the Bridge Committee of this Board be requested and empowered to employ expert financial accountants and actuaries who shall prepare from the records of this Board and other data a complete set-up of figures tabulating in parallel form the more profitable policy to be adopted."

Supervisor Shannon presented:

"Whereas, there are pending before the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco various applications for franchises to construct and operate toll bridges over and across the Bay of San Francisco from various points in the City and County of San Francisco to various points in the County of Alameda; and

"Whereas, it appears to the Board of Supervisors that a toll bridge over and across the Bay of San Francisco from Mission Rock to some suitable point in the County of Alameda will best serve the people of San Francisco and that Mission Rock is the most feasible and logical starting point for a transbay bridge between San Francisco and Alameda; and now therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the Board of Supervisors does hereby select Mission Rock as the best and most feasible starting point for a transbay bridge between San Francisco and the County of Alameda and does hereby designate said site as the point in San Francisco from which the first transbay bridge shall be constructed; and be it further

"Resolved, That all persons, firms and corporations who have heretofore made application for a franchise to construct and operate transbay toll bridges between San Francisco and Alameda County, as well as all other persons interested, be invited to present to this Board of Supervisors applications, plans and specifications for a franchise for a transbay toll bridge from Mission Rock in the City and County of San Francisco to some point in the County of Alameda."

Supervisor Shannon presented:

"Whereas, A. McLean Hawks, bridge and mining engineer, has called the attention of this Board to the advantages of Mission Rock as the location for the main bridge pier or bridge-head of the San Francisco Bay Bridge, and without thought of remuneration or reward has suggested that this location be considered by this City for its public bridge location; and

"Whereas, Mission Rock, in this engineer's judgment, has unequaled advantages as regards stability of the bridge, maximum length and height of channel spans, comparative shallowness of water to the east, economy of cost, absence of obstruction to shipping, facility to automobile traffic within San Francisco and passing through San Fran- Francisco; and the handling of interurban and trans-continental trains; and

"Whereas, the Bay bridge plan originally proposed by Hawks. later duplicated by Gustave Lindenthal and embodied in the McSheehy resolution, opens the way for the selection by this Board of a site that shall be the best site, irrespective of whether or not it has been previously proposed by private parties; and

"Whereas, the Mission Rock site has not been proposed by any private group seeking a franchise, but remains open for selection by this Board as the City's site if its apparent advantages be borne out by careful study; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the City Attorney be and he is hereby instructed to file immediate condemnation proceedings against property known as Mission Rock, in order to protect the City at this time against any private proposal which may seek hereafter to utilize this site; and be it

"Further Resloved, That the Special Bridge Committee of this Board be and it is hereby instructed to give careful study to this location as the possible choice of the City and County of San Francisco."

Motions.

Supervisor Gallagher: I move you that while it is the policy of this Board that we favor a publicly-owned bay bridge, it is however, the sense of this Board that we favor immediate construction of said bridge by private capital, until the people may elect in the manner provided by law to take over said bridge and place it under public ownership and control.

Supervisor Marks: I move you that, as an amendment to the motion of Supervisor Gallagher, the City Attorney be requested to submit to this Board, at the earliest possible opportunity, a form of submission of the issue of public ownership and operation of the proposed bridge, or private ownership or operation of the proposed bridge, for action by the people at the earliest possible opportunity.

Supervisor Marks: I desire to present the following motion and calling attention to the fact that it does not call for anything other than asking the City Attorney to submit a proper form of proposal to us. I make the motion which heretofore has been outlined three or four times.

(Referring to motion set out in full above.)

The Chairman: Any objection? So ordered.

Completion of Skyline Boulevard.

Supervisor Marks presented:

Resolution No. ——— (New Series), as follows:

Whereas, the people of the State of California, at the general election of 1919, did approve a measure outlining a system of state highways to be completed in the State, and did vote a bond issue of forty million dollars for the same; and

Whereas, of the system of roads planned under this bond issue, there still remain several important links which have not been completed in what is generally known as the Pacific Shore Line Route. This highway runs from San Francisco over the Sky Line boulevard to Los Angeles and when completed will be one of the finest and most important highways in the State and will serve to relieve the present and ever-increasing congestion on the two great interior valley trunk lines, and especially over the Cuesta grade; and

Whereas, finances are practically assured for the future construction. as well as renewal and maintenance, it is deemed just and fair that the central counties should have allocated to this great project a portion of the funds to keep up continuous construction and thus open to the public at the earliest possible date this all-important section of the state highways. Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That this Board does hereby approve and urges early completion of this route and that special consideration be given to the completion of the 38-mile gap lying in the center of the Carmel-San Simeon section.

Referred to Streets Committee.

ROLL CALL FOR PETITIONS FROM MEMBERS.

Rapid Transit Peninsula Highway Proposed.

Supervisor Gallagher presented and the Clerk read:

Communication, from McDonald & Co., in which the attention of the Board was called to the recent merger of the Capwell Company of Oakland and The Emporium, and saying that from now on San Francisco will have to look to the peninsula for its growth and that Oakland will be more of a rival than ever. That subways from the heart of the city should be built to the south; that it has been the wealth of San Francisco that has developed Los Angeles; it has been the wealth of San Francisco that has developed other parts of the State and is now developing Oakland, and that San Francisco "must now look to the development of her own city."

Resolution.

Whereupon, Supervisor Gallagher presented the following resolution which was referred to the Committee on Streets and Commercial Development:

"Whereas, the attention of this Board and the public has been called to a letter published under the title of "The Needs of San Francisco for Future Development." in which communication is recited the fact that sister cities within this State are taking steps to establish their supremacy; and

"Whereas, this communication calls attention to the need of development southward along the peninsula as the necessary thing for San Francisco and the peninsula cities to undertake in order that this city by that and other means may hold her place in the development of this State: and

"Whereas, it is admitted that the first great step necessary in this development of San Francisco and the peninsula is the matter of rapid transit, both vehicular and by railroads and railways; and

"Whereas, it is further apparent that no comprehensive plan of wide highway development calculated to give to vehicular traffic that means of rapid transportation so vitally necessary has been proposed; and

"Whereas, it appears that a comprehensive plan of wide highway development, including tunnels, is the solution of this matter; and

"Whereas, the necessity of a bond issue from five to ten million dollars for the construction of added means of ingress and egress to the peninsula is apparently necessary; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That a special commission of engineers be selected by his Honor the Mayor, one from San Francisco, one by the combined peninsula cities south, to and including Redwood City, and one by these two, whose duty it shall be to study the conditions and make recommendations to this Board involving, if necessary, bond issues to be joined in by this City and the peninsula towns, having for their purpose provisions of wide, rapid transit highways to and from the peninsula; be it

"Further Resolved, That the Board of Public Works be requested to report at the earliest possible date the prospective cost of the employment of these engineers and the cost of said survey."

Fireproof Roofing Limits.

Supervisor Hayden presented:

Communication, from the Board of Fire Wardens, requesting that they be given a proper hearing in regard to the amendment of Section 4 of Ordinance No. 1008 of the Building Law, pertaining to fireproof roofing limits. They wish the area increased in order to remove the fire hazard.

Privilege of the Floor.

Fire Chief Murphy was granted the privilege of the floor and stated that the matter has been before the Building Committee for many months and no action taken.

The matter was set for hearing on Monday, April 11, at 4 p. m.

Expiring Franchises.

Supervisor Gallagher asked as to when there would be a meeting of the Finance and Public Utilities Committees in reference to the expiring franchises of the Market Street Railway Company.

He called attention to the short time which will elapse before 1929, when a number of the franchises will expire, and that some arrangements should be made soon so that the people will know that the services on those lines will not be stopped or the company be operating cars over them without proper permission. He said the Board should consider now whether the company should be given an indeterminate franchise for these lines; whether some sort of plan for joint use should be worked out satisfactory to all parties concerned, or whether some other plan of operation or the purchase on a pay-as-you-go plan.

Supervisor McSheehy stated that the committee will not be able to meet this week because some of the members will be in Sacramento attending the Legislature, but an effort will be made to have a meeting next week.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Approval of Highway Construction, Carmel-San Simeon Section.

Supervisor Marks presented:

Resolution No. ——— (New Series), as follows:

Whereas, the people of the State of California, at the general election of 1919, did approve a measure outlining a system of State highways to be completed in the State, and did vote a bond issue of forty million dollars for the same; and

Whereas, of the system of roads planned under this bond issue there still remain several important links which have not been completed in what is generally known as the Pacific Shore Line Route, which highway runs from San Francisco over the Skyline boulevard to Los Angeles, and, when completed, will be one of the finest and most important highways in the State, and will serve to relieve the present and ever-increasing congestion on the two great interior valley trunk lines, and especially over the Cuesta grade; and

Whereas, finances are practically assured for the future construction as well as renewal and maintenance, it is deemed just and fair that the central counties should have allocated to this great project a portion of the funds to keep up continuous construction and thus open to the public at the earliest possible date this all-important section of the State highways; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That this Board does hereby approve and urges early completion of this route and that special consideration be given to the completion of the thirty-eight-mile gap lying in the center of the Carmel-San Simeon section.

Spur Track Permit, United States Government.

On motion of Supervisor Marks:

Bill No. 7980, Ordinance No. —— (New Series), as follows:

Granting to the United States the right to construct, maintain and operate, and to maintain and operate, where already constructed, in perpetuity a spur track railroad, extending from Fort Mason Military Reservation to the Presidio Reservation, in the City and County of San Francisco, over and along certain public streets in said City and County.

Whereas, by charter amendment, duly ratified and adopted at the general election held on the 2d day of November, 1926, and approved by the Legislature of the State of California on the 10th day of January, 1927, a new section, known as Section 8, Article I, was added to the Charter of the City and County of San Francisco, under the terms of which the City and County of San Francisco was authorized to accept and receive from the Government of the United States a tract of land located on the westerly line of Lyon street and containing 9.93 acres, more or less, being the site of what is known as the Palace of Fine Arts, in the City and County of San Francisco; and in consideration therefor the City and County of San Francisco was authorized to grant to the Government of the United States the right to operate and maintain in perpetuity a spur track railroad from the easterly line of Laguna street at its intersection with Beach street, and extending in a general westerly direction and following along and over certain designated streets to the westerly line of Lyon street; and streets, and no longer exist as such, and in lieu thereof, and for the purpose of creating a through street connecting the intersection of Buchanan street and Beach street and the intersection of Webster street and Tonquin street, a new street, to be known as Marin boulevard, has been laid out, paved and opened as a public street, which said new street extends in a straight line from the intersection of Buchanan street and Webster street in a northwesterly direction to the intersection of Webster street and Tonquin street;

Therefore, for the purpose of furnishing to the Government of the United States the consideration specified in the Act of Congress authorizing the conveyance to the City and County of San Francisco of the said site of the Palace of Fine Arts, and to authorize the granting to the United States Government of a continuous right of way for such spur track railroad from the intersection of Laguna street and Beach street to the westerly line of Lyon street the following ordinance is enacted:

The above described right of way being an exact description of the right of way over and on which the Government of the United States now maintains and operates its spur track from the easterly line of Laguna street in a westerly direction to the westerly line of Lyon street.

Section 2. The right hereby granted shall include the right to construct, maintain and operate a switch into the United States Army Supply Depot at Fort Mason from a point on Beach street approximately seventy (70) feet west of the west line of Laguna street.

San Mateo County Bridge Franchise, C. J. Cary.

Supervisor Shannon presented:

Resolution No. 27089 (New Series), as follows:

Whereas, C. J. Cary has applied to the Board of Supervisors of the County of San Mateo for a franchise to construct a bridge from Candlestick Point, in the County of San Mateo, to Bay Farm Island, in the County of Alameda, State of California; and

Whereas, said contemplated bridge is merely a short distance south of the county line of the City and County of San Francisco and the application for said franchise shows that the bridge contemplated will proceed a short distance from the shore of the County of San Mateo and will then turn north so as to be opposite the shore of the City and County of San Francisco; and

Whereas, this Board has appointed engineers for the purpose of selecting the best available site for a bridge from this County to Alameda County and a bridge from the proposed location asked for by Mr. Cary is practically a duplication of applications now before this Board and if granted by the Board of Supervisors of San Mateo County might seriously interfere with the conclusions of said engineers; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That this Board request the Board of Supervisors of San Mateo County to take no action upon the application of said C. J. Cary until such time as the engineers appointed by this Board make their findings and report.

Adopted by the following vote:

W. W. Arnheim, New York Traffic Expert, Presented.

W. W. Arnheim, chairman of the Broadway Traffic Committee of New York, was presented to the Board. He said that he had gained some points in San Francisco with respect to traffic regulation, which they have not been using, but which he should recommend upon his return, viz.: the pedestrian lane metal markers and the safety zone buttons.

He explained to the Board the system of traffic signal lights which they are using and which, he says, have proven very satisfactory, but which they are planning to enlarge. Just a short time ago they appropriated a sum of over $300,000 for these signals, and more recently over $400,000. The system is synchronized and so operated as to not require traffic policemen in the numbers formerly necessary and will be a great saving in that respect.

He said that in Los Angeles he had observed that the signals were being observed both by automobilists and pedestrians and were a success.

The time between signals in New York is approximately two minutes, as against 30 seconds in San Fran-Francisco. By making the time between signals two minutes, and proper observation, it is often possible for an automobile to travel for 10 or 12 blocks without coming to a street intersection at the time when the traffic is stopped on that street. That means system and planning for all streets.

Action Deferred.

Mayor Consents to Gas Litigation Compromise.

The following was read and ordered spread in the Journal:

April 4, 1927.

Honorable Board of Supervisors,
City and County of San Francisco,
City Hall, San Francisco, California.

Gentlemen:

I herewith give formal consent to the acceptance of the offer of compromise of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company as recommended in writing by the City Attorney and as concurred in by a majority of your Honorable Board, in Resolution No. 26935 (New Series), dated March 7, 1927. I do this under the authority conferred by Section 2, Chapter II, Article V of the Charter, which provides "that he (the City Attorney) shall not settle or dismiss any litigation for or against the City and County under his control unless upon his written recommendation he is ordered to do so by the Mayor and Supervisors."

This matter comes to me by majority vote of your Honorable Board, accompanied by approval of former City Attorney George Lull, whose familiarity with the subject extended over many years, and by the approval of City Attorney O'Toole, who, in the event of no compromise being made, would be required to try this case.

This controversy has extended over many years. It originated at a time when Boards of Supervisors of municipalities were empowered to establish rates for consumers of gas and electricity.

Since that time, the people, by amendment to the State Constitution, have vested this power in the State Railroad Commission, so that the settlement of this particular question cannot be used as an authority, or as a precedent for any acts of any Board of Supervisors.

I am most influenced, in the consideration of this problem, by the opinion of former City Attorney George Lull, during whose administration this case was tried, and by present City Attorney O'Toole, whose opinion was rendered after an examination of the facts and the law. I assume from the opinions of these former and present legal advisors of the City that it is their conclusion that this case could not be won on behalf of the City and the ratepayers.

Generally, I am inclined to the consideration that it is not correct principle for a City to commence an action and then "split the difference" with the defendant; that one of the litigants must be right entirely. However, this matter has dragged many years and I am informed that a retrial of the matter would be fraught with great difficulty and, before an ultimate decision would be rendered, several years would elapse.

This would seem unfair to the ratepayers who, by the proposed compromise, would receive a substantial sum of money and who, vastly more than the City as a corporate entity, are concerned.

I am not unmindful in this deliberation of the frequent misuse and abuse of propaganda and appeals to prejudice in dealings between the government and corporations.

A year ago when it was proposed to temporarily accept for Hetch Hetchy power—which would otherwise be wasted—a vast sum of money, to the benefit of the taxpayers, a political campaign of attack and vituperation was made on the government on the ground that this was a sell-out of the people, whereas the absolutely sane determination to accept this money for the people instead of allowing power to go to waste has enabled these persons who conducted the campaign of false statements to boast to the people of their reduction of the tax rate. However, it does not appear of advantage to any politicians to use this measure as a political issue. It comes to me on its merits alone, and, weighing the advantage of extinguishing expensive and harassing and apparently hopeless litigation and distributing the money, now impounded, to those to whom it belongs, individual and corporate, it appears more just to approve than to disapprove this compromise.

I shall, therefore, sign the proposed compromise.

Respectfully,

(Sgd.)

JAMES ROLPH, JR.,
Mayor.

Action Deferred.

On motion of Supervisor Stanton, the following matter was continued one week:

Mayor's Veto.

Spur Track Ordinance Amendment.

Consideration of the veto of his Honor the Mayor of Ordinance No. 7453 (New Series), entitled "Amending Ordinance No. 69 (New Series), providing for and regulating the construction, maintenance and use of spur tracks on and over public streets in the City and County of San Francisco, and fixing penalties for the violation thereof by adding a new section to be known as Section 2a," whih amendment provides that the holder of spur track permit in the sale and delivery of goods, materials and supplies transported over such tracks will sell and deliver same without requiring from purchaser any understanding that he will become a party to any agreement or combination in restraint of trade or to employ certain class of labor.

Question: Shall the ordinance finally pass notwithstanding the objections of his Honor the Mayor?

Award of Contract, Arterial Stop Signals.

Supervisor Badaracco presented:

Resolution No. 27124 (New Series), as follows:

Resolved, That award of contract is hereby made to the California State Automobile Association, Inc., for its share of the furnishing, installing and maintaining during a period of five years of 500 Carter arterial stop signals, at $20 each or less, in conformity with the terms stated in the letter on file in the Bureau of Supplies, which reads as follows, viz.:

April 2, 1927.

Mr. Leonard S. Leavey, Purchaser of Supplies, City and County of San Francisco.

Dear Sir:

In reply to your request of April 1, 1927, for a definite proposition on what we will do toward the furnishing and installation of the Carter arterial stop signal, we respectfully submit the following:

As we estimated the total cost of the signal installed and maintained for a period of five years to be approximately $40, we agree to furnish this signal to the City and County of San Francisco for one-half this cost, or $20 each. It is our understanding that the $10,000 appropriated was on this basis and was to pay for five hundred of these signals.

We would like it understood that we do not furnish lamps or the electric current for this signal. This, as well as bringing the wires to the signal, must be furnished by the City independent of this contract.

We agree to furnish, install and maintain for a period of five years five hundred Carter arterial stop signals on iron posts, mounted inside the curb line as directed by the Traffic Committee, the cost to the City to be $20 per signal on an order of five hundred.

We are now endeavoring to secure orders from several other cities on this same type of signal, and in that event the cost per signal will no doubt be reduced, and I can assure you that we will follow our usual policy in giving the City and County of San Francisco the benefit of this reduction.

By maintenance we mean that we will keep the post and all parts of the signal well painted and in first-class condition. Likewise, will replace all signals or posts damaged beyond repair.

J. W. JOHNSON,
Chief Engineer.

Said letter is hereby made a part hereof and its terms are accepted by the City and County of San Francisco.

Resolved, That the above action is taken pursuant to Resolution No. 26877 (New Series), approved March 11, 1927, which directs said purchase, and Resolution No. 26894 (New Series), approved March 18, 1927, which sets aside, appropriates and authorizes the expenditure of the sum of $10,000 for this purpose.

Resolved, That a bond in the sum of $2,500 be required for the faithful performance of this contract.

His Honor Mayor Rolph presiding.

Reception of Irish Patriot, Eamon De Valera.

At this session of the Board a program had been arranged in honor of the Irish patriot, Eamon De Valera.

In introducing him to the members of the Board, Mayor Rolph stated that Mr. De Valera is one of four people who are honorary citizens of the City of San Francisco.

Mr. De Valera said that he envied San Francisco—its freedom and its achievements, not in the ordinary sense of not being glad that we have our freedom and are progressing, but that he longs for the time to come when the people of Ireland will no longer be oppressed, but free, and can themselves progress more rapidly. That is what he is striving for himself.

The Music Committee, of which Supervisor Roncovieri is chairman, provided a program of Irish music.

At the request of the Mayor Supervisor Deasy sang an Irish song. And when the final number of the orchestra was rendered Supervisor Hayden favored those present with Irish selections on the violin.

Supervisors Gallagher and McSheehy each spoke in praise and admiration of the guest of honor.

precedence in the order in which they are arranged; provided, however, that during a call of the Board it may consider and transact any matter or business that the Supervisors there present shall unanimously decide to consider.

26. A motion to adjourn is not debatable.

27. The previous question shall be put in the following form: "Shall the previous question be now put?" It shall only be admitted when demanded by three Supervisors, and its effect shall be to put an end to all debate except that the author of the bill, ordinance, resolution or motion or amendments shall have the right to close, and the question under discussion shall thereupon be immediately put to a vote. On a motion for the previous question prior to a vote being taken by the Board a call of the Board shall be in order.

28. Every member present when a question is put shall vote for or against it, unless disqualified by the Charter. No member shall be permitted to vote upon a question unless present when his name is called or before the vote is announced. A roll call shall not be interrupted for debate or personal privilege, but a member may file, in writing, an explanation of his vote.

29. If any member, in speaking, or otherwise, transgresses the rules of the Board, the presiding officer shall, or any member may, call him to order, in which case the member so called to order shall immediately sit down, and, if called to order by a member, such member shall immediately state the point of order. If the point of order be sustained by the Chair the member shall not be allowed to proceed, but if it be not sustained then he shall be permitted to go on. Every such decision from the Chair shall be subject to an appeal to the Board, but no discussion of a question of order shall be allowed, unless an appeal be taken from the decision of the Chair. The question on appeal shall be: "Shall the decision of the Chair stand as the decision of the Board?"

30. After the Board has acted, the names of those who voted for and those who voted against the question shall be entered upon the Journal, not only in cases required by law, but when any member may require it, and on all bills, ordinances and resolutions on final passage the ayes and nays shall be recorded.

31. All appointments of officers and employees shall be made by a majority of the members of the Board. The Clerk shall assign the assistant clerks and chauffeur to their several duties, and shall immediately transmit to the Mayor all resolutions and ordinances which, under the law, require executive approval.

32. No member shall leave the Board during its session without permission from the Board.

33. All committees shall be appointed by the Board unless otherwise ordered by the Board. Committees shall report on any subject referred to them by the Board and their recommendations thereon. Unless otherwise ordered, a committee shall report upon all subjects referred to it within thirty days thereafter.

34. The Clerk shall prepare and cause to be printed and placed on the desks of the members on days of meeting, at least 30 minutes before such a meeting, a calendar of matters to be presented to the Board at said meeting. Every petition or other written instrument intended to be presented to the Board must be delivered to the Clerk not later than 12 o'clock noon on Saturday, or on the day preceding the meeting; upon the request of the President or of any member its contents shall be read in full. Chairman of a committee may instruct the Clerk to print in full on the Calendar any bill or resolution.

35. All petitions, protests and communications of a routine character shall be referred by the Clerk to the proper committee.

36. Ten members shall constitute a quorum to transact business, and no bill, ordinance, resolution or amendment thereto shall pass without the concurrence of at least that number of members, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

37. Except when otherwise provided by these rules, the Charter or law, a majority vote of the members present shall be necessary for the adoption of any motion.

38. No smoking shall be permitted in the chambers of the Supervisors during the sessions of the Board.

39. The Clerk shall keep a record of all requests and instructions directed by the Board of Supervisors to any officer or board of the City and County and the action thereon of such officer or board. The record of such request and instructions, until acted upon by such officer or board, shall be read by the Clerk at each regular meeting of the Board of Supervisors.

40. The privilege of the floor to persons other than members of the Board shall be permitted only by suspension of the rule, and in the case of legislative matters pending before the Board this privilege shall be limited to ten minutes each to proponents and opponents of the measure. This time may only be extended by further suspension of the rule.

41. In debate a member must confine himself to the question before the Board.

42. No member of the Board of Supervisors, chairman of a committee, or committee of said Board, shall employ or engage the services of any person, or authorize or incur any charge, debt or liability against the City and County unless authority therefor shall have been first given by the Board of Supervisors by resolution or ordinance, except as otherwise provided by law.

43. No standing rule or order of the Board shall be suspended or amended without the affirmative vote of twelve members.

44. No special order shall be placed on the calendar except by order of the Board.

Mayor's Veto, Spur Track Ordinance Amendment.

The following matter, laid over from last week, was taken up:

Consideration of the veto of his Honor the Mayor of Ordinance No. 7453 (New Series), entitled "Amending Ordinance No. 69 (New Series), providing for and regulating the construction, maintenance and use of spur tracks on and over public streets in the City and County of San Francisco, and fixing penalties for the violation thereof by adding a new section to be known as Section 2a," which amendment provides that the holder of spur track permit in the sale and delivery of goods, materials and supplies transported over such tracks will sell and deliver same without requiring from purchaser any understanding that he will become a party to any agreement or combination in restraint of trade or to employ certain class of labor.

Question: Shall the ordinance finally pass notwithstanding the objections of his Honor the Mayor?

Statement of Supervisor McSheehy.

San Francisco, April 4, 1927.

Honorable Board of Supervisors, City and County of San Francisco.

Gentlemen: On March 7, 1927, the Board of Supervisors passed Bill No. 7929, Ordinance No. 7443 (New Series), regulating the construction, maintenance and use of spur tracks on and over the public streets within the City and County of San Francisco.

On March 18, 1927, the Mayor of this City vetoed this ordinance, setting forth a number of reasons for his veto. As one member of the Board of Supervisors I resent his reasons, and especially to paragraph 9, which reads:

"We have had, in the past, corrupt Boards of Supervisors. Could anybody conceive a greater opportunity for blackmail and corruption than this ordinance offers to any unscrupulous Board, to traffic in spur track privileges?"

I would like to call his Honor's attention to the fact that we have had corrupt Mayors, some of whom advocated his Honor's election four years ago.

The last paragraph in the Mayor's veto reads:

"My investigation of this ordinance establishes to my satisfaction that a very small percentage of the holders of spur track permits in operation in San Francisco are subject to charges of discrimination."

This paragraph is the crux of the Mayor's veto, and it is one of the reasons why I voted for the spur track permit and it is one of the reasons why I am going to vote against the Mayor's veto today, for I feel that Bill No. 7443 (amendment to the spur track ordinance) is one that will protect all the citizens of San Francisco and permit this City to continue as the most prosperous city in the United States. Statistics show that we are the richest city per capita in this great country, so let us continue and not foster strife and discord that will retard the progress of this great city! Why continually throw this city into a state of chaos and advertise to the world that we are not competent to regulate ourselves? This amendment is a check against discrimination and will act as a guard against internal strife. It is exactly in spirit with the State anti-trust laws and the national anti-trust laws. Its purpose is right.

There has not been, to my knowledge, a spur track permit granted without the same containing certain riders, and this is simply a rider for the protection of all.

For these reasons I voted for the permit, and for these reasons I am voting against the Mayor's veto.

Respectfully submitted,

JAS. B. McSHEEHY,
Supervisor.

Mayor's Veto Sustained.

Whereupon, the question being put, the Mayor's veto was sustained by the following vote:

Ayes—Supervisors Deasy, Havenner, Kent, McSheehy, Powers, Roncovieri, Schmidt, Shannon, Stanton, Todd—10.

Noes—Supervisors Byington, Colman, Gallagher, Harrelson, Hayden, Marks—6.

Absent—Supervisors Badaracco, Bath—2.

Mayor's Veto, Ocean Palace Amusement Company Permit.

Consideration of the veto of his Honor the Mayor of Resolution No. 26839 (New Series), "granting the Ocean Palace Amusement Company permission to construct, maintain and operate an amusement park as defined in Ordinance No. 5240 (New Series), in and upon so much of the block bounded by Wawona street, Forty-sixth and Forty-seventh avenues and Sloat boulevard, as is now permitted or hereafter may be permitted by Ordinance No. 5464 (New Series), known as the Zoning Ordinance.

Question: Shall the resolution finally pass notwithstanding the objections of his Honor the Mayor?

The chair declared that the Mayor's veto on the foregoing was sustained automatically by reason of the fact that the time within which it could be legally acted upon had expired:

(2) Taxes, insurance and rents on or from property purchased by the City are to be prorated as of the date of transfer.

(3) Accounts receivable for water furnished to consumers shall be prorated as of the date of transfer. Inasmuch as the Water Company will be required, in the discharge of its public obligations, to furnish water to consumers up to the time of transfer to the City, the City shall use all and every means within its power to collect, for the account and benefit of the Water Company, all moneys due or to become due from consumers for water supplied to them by the Water Company during the sixty (60) days preceding the date of transfer, including water delivered between the last meter reading date and the date of transfer but not recorded on the books of the Water Company at said last-named date. (5) As between the lands of the Water Company which are retained by it and those which are sold to the City, such rights of way as are necessary or desirable for ingress and egress to and from either the retained property over the property sold or vice versa shall be given by one party to the other whenever request therefor is made, provided, however, that each party shall within two (2) years from the date of transfer notify the other of the particular right or rights of way to which it claims to be entitled under this paragraph.

(6) The Water Company shall convey its real property to the City by grant, bargain and sale deed, subject to existing leases, rights of way, obligations which are assumed by the City, and the lien of taxes for the fiscal year current at the time of transfer, provided that nothing herein contained shall conflict with the prorating of taxes as hereinbefore provided.

(7) In the conveyance or conveyances to the City transferring the lands in the County of Alameda designated in Exhibit A as parcels 70 and 71, there shall be expressly excepted from said conveyance and reserved to the Water Company rights of way for roads to afford ingress and egress to and from adjoining and neighboring lands retained by the Water Company. Such rights of way shall in each case be of the width of fifty (50) feet and shall not exceed six (6) in number as to parcel 70 of twenty-two (22) in number as to parcel 71. Said rights of way shall cross said parcels at right angles and shall not be spaced closer together than four hundred (400) feet. As to parcel 71 there shall be reserved and excepted the additional right to construct and maintain roadways fifty (50) feet in width across said parcel and adjoining and parallel to and on each side of the railroad right of way of the Southern Pacific Company (San Ramon Branch). There shall also be reserved the right to construct and maintain telephone and power lines on and along each and all of said rights of way, together with the right to construct, use, maintain and repair across said parcels such pipes, ditches and conduits as now exist or as may be necessary to irrigate and drain the adjoining and neighborhood lands of the Water Company not included in this offer.

(8) The conveyance or conveyances transferring the real properties of the Water Company included in this offer shall specifically except and reserve to the Water Company riparian rights attaching to and being part of its lands known as Arroyo Valle lands, which comprise the Arroyo Valle reservoir site, and lands the drainage from which flows to said reservoir site, but for use on the said Arroyo Valle lands; and also the right to pump from the lands known as the Overacker Tract, near Niles, the lands known as the Nusbaumer lands between Sunol and Pleasanton, and the lands known as the Stone lands between Sunol and Niles, such water as may be reasonably necessary for irrigation and domestic use upon said tracts, but not elsewhere. There shall also be expressly reserved the right to receive from the water mains constituting parts of the water system covered by this offer such water as may be needed for use upon the lands in Alameda County known as the Nusbaumer lands, and upon the lands in San Mateo County known as the Howard lands and the Polhemus lands, at rates to be established by the Railroad Commission of the State of California.

(9) The Water Company shall be entitled to charge against its revenues for the period from December 31, 1926, to the date of actual transfer, as an interest burden incurred and paid by the Water Company, the unamortized portion of the bond discount and expense incurred and paid by the Company in the sale of its bonds now outstanding, i. e., the portion of such bond discount and expense which has not already been so charged against the revenues of the Water Company for preceding years.

(10) This offer, in case it be rejected by the City, shall expire with such rejection, and in any case shall expire on December 31, 1927, unless theretofore accepted by the City.

This ordinance is the second of a series of ordinances to be adopted by the Board of Supervisors relating to and designed to secure the acquisition, construction and completion of the public utility herein named.

Be it ordained by the People of the City and County of San Francisco as follows:

Section 1. It is hereby recited that the Board of Public Works, on the 11th day of April, 1927, placed on file with the Board of Supervisors plans and estimates of the cost of the original construction and completion by the City and County of San Francisco of a public utility, to-wit: A water supply, water works, pumping plants, lands, rights of way, storage reservoirs and distributing system, or such portions thereof as may be deemed necessary, and owned by the Spring Valley Water Company, for the purpose of furnishing to the inhabitants of the City and County of San Francisco a supply of good, pure water for the uses of the inhabitants of the City and County of San Francisco. That the total estimated cost of such water supply and works as herein described is the sum of forty million ($40,000,000) dollars; that said plans and estimates contain sufficient information to enable the Board of Supervisors to take further proceedings to secure said described public utility and to make the declarations herein contained.

Section 2. It is hereby determined and declared that of the said sum of forty million ($40,000,000) dollars no part can be paid out of the annual revenue of the City and County of San Francisco in addition to the other necessary expenses thereof or other funds derived from taxes levied for that purpose, and will require the incurring of a bonded debt to the amount of forty million ($40,000,000) dollars for the purposes herein recited.

Report of Public Buildings Committee on Proposed Amendment Extending the District Within Which Shingle Roofs Are Prohibited.

Consideration of the proposed amendment to the present Shingle District Ordinance was discussed.

Privilege of the Floor.

Fire Chief Murphy urged that the ordinance be passed as a fire protective measure. He stated that in the past two years there have been 2000 fires on shingle roofs. He says the fire wardens are not recommending any particular type of roof, but they are asking that people be required to use what they term "fire retarding roofs."

He said that in the Richmond District 90 per cent of the houses are wooden buildings and shingle roofs. He said that if a big fire started in the Western Addition, in the Park-Presidio District or the Sunset District at a time when there is a strong north wind nothing could protect the district.

Messrs. McCallum and Art Bevins, representing the Redwood Association, were also heard in opposition.

On motion of Supervisor Gallagher further hearing was continued until Monday, April 18, 1927, and made a Special Order for 2:30 p. m.

Approval of Senate Bill 863, Relative to Excess Rates Collected by Public Service Corporations.

Supervisor McSheehy presented:

Resolution No. 27127 (New Series), as follows:

Whereas, there is pending in the Legislature Senate Bill No. 863, introduced by Senator Daniel C. Murphy; and

Whereas, this bill provides that all moneys collected by any public utility in excess of the rate fixed by the Railroad Commission or other rate-fixing body which shall have remained unclaimed for more than four years after the final determination of the legality of such rates shall escheat to the State of California and one year thereafter shall be paid by the State to the county from which said excess rate was collected to be used for public school purposes; and

Whereas, the enactment of this legislation into law is of vital importance to the people as it must be obvious that these unclaimed moneys collected by public utilities in excess of the legal rate primarily belong to the ratepayer, and in the event of his failure to claim same after a reasonable time, due to death, removal or other causes, they should not become the property of the public utility but should escheat to the State as in the case of other unclaimed property; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Board of Supervisors approves Senate Bill No. 863 and urges the members of the San Francisco delegation in the Legislature to use their best efforts in securing the passage of this bill

Leave of Absence, Purchaser of Supplies L. Leavy.

The following was presented and read by the Clerk:

San Francisco, Cal.,
April 14, 1927.

Hon. Board of Supervisors, City Hall, San Francisco.

Gentlemen:

In view of the impending departure of Mr. Leonard S. Leavy, City Purchasing Agent, for the annual convention of the National Association of Purchasing Agents, which is to take place at Grand Rapids, Michigan, next June, application has been made to me by Mr. Leavy for a leave of absence, with permission to absent himself from the State of California for a period of forty days, commencing May 27, 1927.

Will you please concur with me in granting this leave of absence if, in the opinion of your Honorable Board, such a leave is necessary in Mr. Leavy's case under the terms of the Charter.

Respectfully yours,
JAMES ROLPH, JR.,
Mayor.

March 29, 1927.

The Hon. Board of Supervisors, San Francisco, California.

Gentlemen:

The State of California, the Pacific Coast and San Francisco in particular are honored this year by the fact that the Purchaser of Supplies of San Francisco is the chairman of the Governmental Purchasers Group of the National Association of Purchasing Agents, which will have its annual convention in Grand Rapids in June. Your purchaser, Mr. Leonard S. Leavy, has been very active in this group ever since its organization and last June was chosen as its chairman.

The purpose of this group is to bring together the purchasers for the various cities, counties and states of the United States in order that they may compare notes and aid one another in better carrying on their particular work. Each year at our convention these men meet together, not only at our regular sessions, but in a group by themselves, when they work out their more intimate problems and the great success they have had has been due very largely to the work of Mr. Leavy. This is the first time that a representative from the western coast has been chosen chairman of this group, which of itself is an honor to the entire district. In addition to the regular problems, the governmental folks discuss departmental cooperation both in purchasing and accounting, and generally make recommendations for centralization of warehouse stores and other functions which bring about the benefits from team work. They also consider standardization, specifications and general betterments which come through cooperation with the U. S. Department of Commerce.

Through Mr. Leavy's activity, San Francisco has attracted quite a lot of favorable attention among the cities of the country which are in the foremost ranks in their purchasing. It would seem to be that it would also be very beneficial if the chairman of the Legislative Committee of the Board of Supervisors, working directly with the Purchaser of Supplies, should also attend this meeting because of the benefits which would result to the City of San Francisco in its purchasing. The visits to other cities, which are ordinarily made by the members of this group, both before and after the convention, should be very beneficial also as well as the discussions at the convention itself.

I am hoping that your Board will make it possible for both these men to attend and get the full benefit of this work.

Very truly yours,
W. L. CHANDLER,
Secretary.

Whereupon, the following resolution was presented and adopted:

Resolution No. 27132 (New Series), as follows:

Resolved, That, in accordance with the recommendation of his Honor the Mayor, Purchaser of Supplies Leonard S. Leavy is hereby granted a leave of absence, for forty days, commencing May 28, 1927, with permission to leave the State.

Spur Track Permit, United States Government.

Bill No. ——, Ordinance No. —— (New Series), as follows:

Granting to the United States the right to construct, maintain and operate, and to maintain and operate, where already constructed, in perpetuity a spur track railroad, extending from Fort Mason Military Reservation to the Presidio Reservation, in the City and County of San Francisco, over and along certain public streets in said City and County.

Whereas, by charter amendment, duly ratified and adopted at the general election held on the 2d day of November, 1926, and approved by the Legislature of the State of California on the 10th day of January, 1927, a new section, known as Section 8, Article I, was added to the Charter of the City and County of San Francisco, under the terms of which the City and County of San Francisco was authorized to accept and receive from the Government of the United States a tract of land located on the westerly line of Lyon street and containing 9.93 acres, more or less, being the site of what is known as the Palace of Fine Arts, in the City and County of San Francisco; and in consideration therefor the City and County of San Francisco was authorized to grant to the Government of the United States the right to operate and maintain in perpetuity a spur track railroad from the easterly line of Laguna street at its intersection with Beach street, and extending in a general westerly direction and following along and over certain designated streets to the westerly line of Lyon street; and

Whereas, such charter amendment, in designating the streets along which said spur track railroad was to be constructed and maintained and operated, where already constructed, included a distance of one block on Beach street from Buchanan street to Webster street, and a distance of one block on Webster street from Beach street to Tonquin street; and

Whereas, said one block of Beach street and said one block of Webster street, above referred to, have been duly closed as open public streets, and no longer exist as such, and in lieu thereof, and for the purpose of creating a through street connecting the intersection of Buchanan street and Beach street and the intersection of Webster street and Tonquin street, a new street, to be known as Marin boulevard, has been laid out, paved and opened as a public street, which said new street extends in a straight line from the intersection of Buchanan street and Webster street in a northwesterly direction to the intersection of Webster street and Tonquin street;

Therefore, for the purpose of furnishing to the Government of the United States the consideration specified in the Act of Congress authorizing the conveyance to the City and County of San Francisco of the said site of the Palace of Fine Arts, and to authorize the granting to the United States Government of a continuous right of way for such spur track railroad from the intersection of Laguna street and Beach street to the westerly line of Lyon street the following ordinance is enacted:

The above described right of way being an exact description of the right of way over and on which the Government of the United States now maintains and operates its spur track from the easterly line of Laguna street in a westerly direction to the westerly line of Lyon street.

Section 2. The right hereby granted shall include the right to construct, maintain and operate a switch into the United States Army Supply Depot at Fort Mason from a point on Beach street approximately seventy (70) feet west of the west line of Laguna street.

Section 3. This ordinance shall become effective upon the conveyance by the Secretary of War of the United States to the City and County of San Francisco of the hereinafter described real property, in accordance with the provisions of an Act of Congress entitled "An Act authorizing the Secretary of War to convey certain portions of the Military Reservation of the Presidio of San Francisco to the City and County of San Francisco for educational, art, exposition and park purposes," approved March 3, 1925. Resolution No. 27196 (New Series), as follows:

Whereas, in accordance with the directions contained in Resolution No. 21988 (New Series) of this Board, approved February 1, 1924, the City Attorney did, on the 11th day of February, 1924, file with the Railroad Commission of the State of California a petition on behalf of the City and County of San Francisco asking the said Railroad Commission to fix and determine the just compensation to be paid by the City and County of San Francisco for certain parts and portions of the electric generating, transmission and distribution properties of Pacific Gas and Electric Company, the properties to be included and which were included in said petition so filed being specifically described in a schedule attached to said petition marked "Exhibit A" under the caption "Properties of Pacific Gas and Electric Company to be acquired under eminent domain proceedings or otherwise;" and

His Honor Mayor Rolph being absent, Supervisor McSheehy was elected to preside.

Mississippi Valley Flood Relief Fund.

At the regular meeting of the Board of Supervisors on April 18 Mayor Rolph stated that the President of the United States had asked that the City of San Francisco join with other cities of the United States to raise a fund to help the stricken people in the Mississippi Valley.

Mr. Milton Esberg, acting chairman of the Red Cross, and Mr. William H. Avery, who is handling the official affairs of the Red Cross Chapter of San Francisco, appealed to the members of the Board to assist in this cause. They stated that the President had asked for five million dollars at this time, of which San Francisco's pro rata is $115,000, and that a proper quota for the City itself would be fifty thousand dollars, the balance to be provided by private subscription.

Mayor Rolph stated that without his solicitation he had that morning received from Senator Phelan the sum of $500, from Moses A. Gunst the sum of $500, and from the Motor Dealers of San Francisco $1,000.

Supervisor McSheehy stated that there is only $22,709 left in the Urgent Necessity Fund and about $7,000 in the Publicity and Advertising Fund, out of which an appropriation could be made, and suggested an appropriation of ten thousand dollars out of the Urgent Necessity Fund.

Supervisor Shannon called the attention of the Board to the appropriation of $100,000 for the Civic Center beautification, which has not been touched as yet and could not possibly all be used this fiscal year in so short a time, and suggested taking the fifty thousand dollars out of that fund.

Supervisor Todd said that the Traffic Committee will have ten thousand dollars that it could spare for that purpose out of the Traffic Fund, and that he had talked with the other members of his committee and they all were agreed that this fund might be used for such a worthy cause. What he wanted was action, as the people in the Mississippi Valley are in want and are suffering while the members of the Board were talking about the money.

As the City Attorney was in Sacramento on City business and could not advise the Board as to just how the money can be legally provided the matter was referred to the Finance Committee with the request of the Board that the Finance Committee, if possible, find fifty thousand dollars for the Mississippi Valley sufferers and announce that fact as soon as possible. The vote on this was almost unanimous.

A resolution, presented by Supervisor Shannon, to provide for the appropriation of fifty thousand dollars was also referred to the Finance Committee, and also referred to the City Attorney for his opinion.

Whereas, by Ordinance No. 7387 (New Series), approved January 28, 1927, the Board of Supervisors determined that public interest and necessity demanded the sale of the lands hereinafter described, and by said ordinance directed the Mayor of the City and County of San Francisco to sell all of said lands at private sale, and directed that notice of said sale be given for two weeks successively next before the sale, as required by law; and

Whereas, the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors thereafter proceeded to publish notice of said sale in the official newspaper and one other daily newspaper published in the City and County of San Francisco, for two weeks successively next before said sale was directed to be made, describing the lands to be sold therein with common certainty and stating the date on which said sale would be made, as specified in Ordinance No. 7387 (New Series), and that all bids or offers would be received by the Mayor at his office in the City Hall, City and County of San Francisco, State of California, on March 3, 1927; and

Whereas, the Mayor, the Assessor and the Chairman of the Finance Committee, being the Board of Appraisers constituted by the Charter of the City and County of San Francisco for such purpose, thereafter duly met and made an appraisement of said lands and fixed the fair value thereof, and reported said appraisement to the Board of Supervisors in writing; and

Whereas, thereafter, and on the 3d day of March, 1927, at private sale, the Mayor of the City and County of San Francisco sold said parcels of land to the following named corporation, Meyer Bros., a corporation, for $11,635, and accepted from said corporation a deposit in the amount of ten per cent or more of the amount bid, and thereafter, and at the next meeting of the Board of Supervisors, March 7, 1927, duly notified the Board of Supervisors in writing of the fact of such sale, stating the amount bid, the name of the bidder, and requesting that the Board confirm the sale; and

Report of Building Committee on Alterations in Hall of Justice.

The following was presented and read by the Clerk:

San Francisco,
April 4, 1927.

Honorable Board of Supervisors,
City and County of San Francisco.

Gentlemen:

The Building Committee has expended $35,000 in making alterations in the Hall of Justice which will give to the Police Department 21,205 square feet of floor space, which is 8291 square feet more than they had previous to these alterations. This is 75 per cent extra floor space. The District Attorney will receive 3556 square feet which is 582 square feet more than he had previous to the alterations that he now has at 333 Kearny street, 3575 square feet, a difference of only 19 square feet. The Adult Probation Officer will have 1712 square feet. Previously he had 1228 square feet, a difference of 484 square feet. He now has 1482 square feet at 333 Kearny street, which is 230 square feet less than he will have in the Hall of Justice. The Public Defender will have 792 square feet. Previous to the alterations he had 456 square feet, a difference of 336 square feet. He now occupies at 333 Kearny street 827 square feet, being same as he will have in the Hall of Justice.

You will see by this report that we are giving to the three departments now occupying rooms at 333 Kearny street more floor space than they now have and we are giving to the Police Department 75 per cent more floor space than they had previous to the alterations. The cancelation of this lease will mean a direct saving of $14,000 in next year's budget. There is no denying the fact that where buildings are four blocks apart the efficiency of the departments will be increased by having them all housed in one building.

The Building Committee has devoted a great deal of time and study to these alterations and feels that the cancelation of this lease will mean a great saving to the City and will allow the efficiency of these departments in function far better than they are now doing.

Respectfully submitted,
CHAS. POWERS,
Chairman.

Supervisor Shannon called attention to the fact that the report submitted by the Building Committee, Supervisor Powers, chairman, shows that 5804 square feet of space is being occupied by the city officials at 333 Kearny street, while the City is paying for 7902 square feet.

On motion of Supervisor Shannon, the matter was continued for two weeks to give the committee an opportunity to find out where the difference of over two thousand feet is.

Confirmation of Sale of Lands.

Bill No. 8026, Ordinance No. —— (New Series), as follows:

Confirming the sale of lands owned by the City and County of San Francisco and situate in the City and County of San Francisco, State of California.

Whereas, by Ordinance No. 7387 (New Series), approved January 28, 1927, the Board of Supervisors determined that public interest and necessity demanded the sale of the lands hereinafter described, and by said ordinance directed the Mayor of the City and County of San Francisco to sell all of said lands at private sale, and directed that notice of said sale be given for two weeks successively next before the sale, as required by law; and

Whereas, the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors thereafter proceeded to publish notice of said sale in the official newspaper and one other daily newspaper published in the City and County of San Francisco, for two weeks successively next before said sale was directed to be made, describing the lands to be sold therein with common certainty and stating the date on which said sale would be made, as specified in Ordinance No. 7387 (New Series), and that all bids or offers would be received by the Mayor at his office in the City Hall, City and County of San Francisco, State of California, on March 3, 1927; and

Whereas, the Mayor, the Assessor and the Chairman of the Finance Committee, being the Board of Appraisers constituted by the Charter of the City and County of San Francisco for such purpose, thereafter duly met and made an appraisement of said lands and fixed the fair value thereof, and reported said appraisement to the Board of Supervisors in writing; and

Whereas, thereafter, and on the 3d day of March, 1927, at private sale, the Mayor of the City and County of San Francisco sold said parcels of land to the following named corporation, Meyer Bros., a corporation, for $11,635, and accepted from said corporation a deposit in the amount of ten per cent or more of the amount bid, and thereafter, and at the next meeting of the Board of Supervisors, March 7, 1927, duly notified the Board of Supervisors in writing of the fact of such sale, stating the amount bid, the name of the bidder, and requesting that the Board confirm the sale; and

Whereas, the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors immediately thereupon proceeded to give notice by publication in the official newspaper and one other newspaper published in the City and County, for a period of 20 days from and after the 9th day of March, 1927, that at a meeting of the Board of Supervisors to be held on the 4th day of April, 1927, the matter of said sale would come up for confirmation, stating also in said notice the fact of the sale and amount for which the lands had been sold, as aforesaid, and the name of the purchaser, and also stating that if at such meeting on the 4th day of April, 1927, an offer of 10 per cent more in amount than that named in said notice should be made to the Supervisors in writing by a responsible person, the Supervisors would confirm such sale to such person or order a new sale; and

Whereas, the said confirmation of sale of said property was taken up on the 4th day of April, 1927, and, upon motion in the Board of Supervisors, action thereon was postponed until May 2, 1927; and

Whereas, May 2, 1927, having now arrived and a higher bid has been obtained, namely, $18,000 from Meyer Bros., being an increase over their former bid, and it appearing to the Board of Supervisors that the said amount is not disproportionate to the value of the property sold and that a greater amount cannot be obtained; therefore,

Action Deferred.

Whereupon, the following resolutions and motions were, on motion of Supervisor Shannon, continued until May 23, 1927. at p. m.:

Presented by Supervisor McSheehy:

Whereas, there are now pending before the Board of Supervisors various applications for franchises to construct and operate toll bridges over and across the Bay of San Francisco, between the City and County of San Francisco and the County of Alameda; and

Whereas, Section 4 of the Act of 1881 provides "That whenever the Supervisors of any county or counties desire to erect a bridge on any public highway, or to grant the privilege so to do, to any individual or corporation, across a navigable stream, said board or boards shall notify the State Engineer of such purpose, and of the precise point where said bridge is to be located,"; and

Whereas, a proper site for a bridge is one the San Francisco terminal of which will be within easy access of the business district of the City, and at the same time sufficiently removed from the main arteries of the City not to unduly congest the same, and the Alameda terminus of which will be easily accessible to traffic of all kinds, especially suburban railway traffic from all parts of the County of Alameda; and

Whereas, the area from and including Rincon Hill on the north, and to and including Sixteenth street on the south, in the City and County of San Francisco, and the area from and including Seventh, Bay, Eighth and Pine streets in the City of Oakland on the north, and to and including Pacific avenue in Alameda on the south, is a district well adapted to and possessing the necessary facilities and conditions for the terminals of a transbay bridge; and

Whereas, in order to meet the requirements of the shipping interests both in San Francisco and Oakland, and to the end that bay navigation shall be interfered with as little as possible, a high level bridge, the structure of which shall have a clearance of at least one hundred and thirty-five feet above the waters of the Bay, is best suited for said transbay bridge; and

Whereas, the City of San Francisco is by its charter committed to public ownership and operation of all public utilities, and that the City of San Francisco should itself construct, own and operate said bridge, if it is possible to do so; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the area from and including Rincon Hill on the north and to and including Sixteenth street on the south, in the City and County of San Francisco, and the area from and including the blocks bounded by Seventh, Bay, Eighth and Pine streets in the City of Oakland on the north, and to and including Pacific avenue in Alameda on the south, be and the same is hereby declared to be the area that is best suited for the respective terminals of a transbay bridge between the City and County of San Francisco and the County of Alameda, and that a high level bridge, the structure of which will have a clearance of at least one hundred and thirty-five feet above the navigable waters of the Bay and adequate length of span will least interfere with bay navigation and with the shipping interests thereon, and is hereby recommended as the type of bridge to be selected.

And be it Further Resolved, That a ruling of the War Department of the United States be forthwith sought as to whether a bridge may be constructed of the type, and with terminals located in the districts above set forth, and for that purpose a committee composed of two members of this Board to be selected by the Chairman of its Finance Committee, and the City Engineer and the City Attorney, or his representative, forthwith proceed to Washington for the purpose of urging the War Department to grant permission for the construction and maintenance of a high level bridge, adequate in height and in length of span, between terminals in the aforesaid area. And be it

Further Resolved, That the City of San Francisco is and by its charter committed to public ownership and operation of all public utilities, and that it should itself construct, own and operate said bridge, if it is possible to do so; and be it Further Resolved, That pending advice and information from the War Department, that the hearing on all pending applications for franchises for transbay bridges be continued from time to time, to the end that this Board will not lose jurisdiction to pass upon them.

Supervisor Havenner presented:

"Resolved, That the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco proceed forthwith to take the necessary legal steps, in accordance with the advice of the City Attorney, to form a bridge district under the State Bridge and Highway District Law, consisting of San Francisco and Alameda Counties, for the purpose of financing, constructing and operating a bridge across San Francisco Bay under public ownership."

Supervisor Roncovieri presented:

"Whereas, financial problems connected with the building of a bridge across the Bay are various and extremely involved, and absolutely fundamental in arriving at a favorable decision of policy as between a bridge built by public funds, or one to be built by private capital; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the Bridge Committee of this Board be requested and empowered to employ expert financial accountants and actuaries who shall prepare from the records of this Board and other data a complete set-up of figures tabulating in parallel form the more profitable policy to be adopted."

Supervisor Shannon presented:

"Whereas, there are pending before the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco various applications for franchises to construct and operate toll bridges over and across the Bay of San Francisco from various points in the City and County of San Francisco to various points in the County of Alameda; and

"Whereas, it appears to the Board of Supervisors that a toll bridge over and across the Bay of San Francisco from Mission Rock to some suitable point in the County of Alameda will best serve the people of San Francisco and that Mission Rock is the most feasible and logical starting point for a transbay bridge between San Francisco and Alameda; and now therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the Board of Supervisors does hereby select Mission Rock as the best and most feasible starting point for a transbay bridge between San Francisco and the County of Alameda and does hereby designate said site as the point in San Francisco from which the first transbay bridge shall be constructed; and be it further

"Resolved, That all persons, firms and corporations who have heretofore made application for a franchise to construct and operate transbay toll bridges between San Francisco and Alameda County, as well as all other persons interested, be invited to present to this Board of Supervisors applications, plans and specifications for a franchise for a transbay toll bridge from Mission Rock in the City and County of San Francisco to some point in the County of Alameda."

Supervisor Shannon presented:

"Whereas, A. McLean Hawks, bridge and mining engineer, has called the attention of this Board to the advantages of Mission Rock as the location for the main bridge pier or bridge-head of the San Francisco Bay Bridge, and without thought of remuneration or reward has suggested that this location be considered by this City for its public bridge location; and

"Whereas, Mission Rock, in this engineer's judgment, has unequaled advantages as regards stability of the bridge, maximum length and height of channel spans, comparative shallowness of water to the east, economy of cost, absence of obstruction to shipping, facility to automobile traffic within San Francisco and passing through San Francisco; and the handling of interurban and trans-continental trains; and

"Whereas, the Bay bridge plan originally proposed by Hawks, later duplicated by Gustave Lindenthal and embodied in the McSheehy resolution, opens the way for the selection by this Board of a site that shall be the best site, irrespective of whether or not it has been previously proposed by private parties; and

"Whereas, the Mission Rock site has not been proposed by any private group seeking a franchise, but remains open for selection by this Board as the City's site if its apparent advantages be borne out by careful study; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the City Attorney be and he is hereby instructed to file immediate condemnation proceedings against property known as Mission Rock, in order to protect the City at this time against any private proposal which may seek hereafter to utilize this site; and be it

"Further Resloved, That the Special Bridge Committee of this Board be and it is hereby instructed to give careful study to this location as the possible choice of the City and County of San Francisco."

Motions.

Supervisor Gallagher: I move you that while it is the policy of this Board that we favor a publicly-owned bay bridge, it is however, the sense of this Board that we favor immediate construction of said bridge by private capital, until the people may elect in the manner provided by law to take over said bridge and place it under public ownership and control.

Supervisor Marks: I move you that, as an amendment to the motion of Supervisor Gallagher, the City Attorney be requested to submit to this Board, at the earliest possible opportunity, a form of submission of the issue of public ownership and operation of the proposed bridge, or private ownership or operation of the proposed bridge, for action by the people at the earliest possible opportunity.

Supervisor Marks: I desire to present the following motion and calling attention to the fact that it does not call for anything other than asking the City Attorney to submit a proper form of proposal to us. I make the motion which heretofore has been outlined three or four times.

(Referring to motion set out in full above.)

The Chairman: Any objection? So ordered.

City Attorney Reports on Proposed Public Utilities Commission.

City Attorney O'Toole stated that he had been working on the problem of a Public Utilities Commission for some time. That he has made a study of the plans adopted by Detroit and New York City. Also, that he made a special trip to Los Angeles to study the system in operation there and he found that Los Angeles has a very workable and satisfactory system.

He said that he would have a report ready for the Board by next Monday and would at the same time present a draft of a Charter amendment to create such a commission. Also, that he would present a plan for proper legislation which would take care of the situation pending the time when a Charter amendment could become in force.

Supervisors Havenner and Colman both said that at the various meetings where they have spoken in reference to the coming bond election that the question of such a commission has invariably been asked and they were glad to be able to tell the people that proper legislation will soon be on its way to provide for the commission.

Supervisor Shannon said that the committee having in charge the bond election campaign would meet in the chambers of the Board on Thursday night at 8 o'clock and that it is important that they should have this assurance also in reference to the Public Utilities Commission.

Relative to Lease of 333 Kearny Street.

The following was presented and read by the Clerk:

May 9, 1927.

Mr. J. S. Dunnigan, Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, City Hall, City.

Dear Sir:

About one year ago the City entered into a lease for the rental of the premises, 333 Kearny street, and up to the present time Mr. James McSheehy and Mr. Chas. J. Powers have refused to make the payments in accordance with the lease entered into.

The Board of Supervisors have appropriated the money and set it aside. The City Attorney has repeatedly ruled that the payment must be met. My attorney, Mr. Harrington, has been to the Finance Committee on many occasions but Mr. McSheehy has repeatedly passed the buck. He has no reason to offer why the payment should not be made and he has no right to arbitrarily hold up a taxpayer's money due him without some objections.

I respectfully request of your Honorable Board to have the matter placed on the calendar and definitely settled.

Thanking you for any action you may take, I am

Yours very truly,

(Sgd) RALPH McLERAN.

Referred to Finance Committee.

Supervisor McSheehy objected to the statement that he was "passing the buck" and stated that they have been holding the money back pending settlement in reference to certain alterations in the building which they thought Mr. McLeran should pay for.

The matter was specially set for hearing next Monday at 11 o'clock and the Clerk directed to request Mr. McLeran to be present.

Termination of Bay Shore Boulevard at Broadway.

Supervisor Marks presented:

Resolution No. 27252 (New Series), as follows:

Whereas, it is understood that the present plan of the State Highway Commission is to terminate the Bayshore Highway at Broadway, in Burlingame; and

Whereas, it is believed important that this highway be extended into San Mateo which would provide several paved laterals between the State Highway (El Camino Real) and the new Bayshore Highway, three of which would pass under the Southern Pacific tracks through underpasses already constructed and two of which extend to the Skyline boulevard; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco respectfully requests that the State Highway Commission of the State of California appoint a date on which all interested parties in this matter be given a hearing; and be it Further Resolved, That it is not the wish of this Board that the present plans of the State Highway Commission for the completion of this highway to Burlingame, for which funds are available, be altered by this further extension.

Report of Finance Committee on Budget, 1927-1928.

The following was presented by the Clerk and public hearing fixed for Wednesday, May 19, 1927, at 9:30 a. m.:

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors, City and County of San Francisco.

Gentlemen:

After a careful study of the personnel, maintenance and operation requirements of every department of the City and County government, and with due consideration of the policy of prudent economy to which this Board of Supervisors is committed in its supervision of the public funds, your Finance Committee submits to you herewith a budget estimate for the fiscal year 1927-1928, totaling $32,918,828. This represents a reduction of $365,554. from the budget total of the present fiscal year.

The Finance Committee is happy to report that it has been able to recommend this reduction after making ample provision for the conduct of the most important departments of public service which are maintained by the municipality. It is conservatively estimated that the tax rate which will be based upon this budget will yield the School Department approximately half a million dollars more than it will receive during the current fiscal year. We have allowed for the construction, equipment and repair of school buildings the maximum amount which is permitted by the State law. Article 1838 of the Political Code of California provides that the maximum rate of taxation for school building purposes shall not exceed 15 cents on the $100, and this is the rate recommended in the budget. If it is deemed desirable, in the future, to provide a greater amount of money for the construction of new schools out of the tax levy, it will be necessary to submit to the people a Charter amendment to legalize a higher rate of taxation for this purpose in San Francisco. For teachers' salaries and the conduct, maintenance and operation of the School Department your Committee has recommended an increase of $150,000 over the total appropriation for this year. In view of the fact that the Board of Education's books show that a surplus of approximately $160,000 will remain in its maintenance and operation fund at the close of the present fiscal year, we are confident that the recommended increase will enable this important department to operate more efficiently than ever in the past. Sufficient money has been provided to allow the Board of Education to raise the salaries of its janitors to a parity with the salaries paid in other departments of the government.

In recognition of the rapid growth of our City and the need for addtional police protection in outlying districts we have recommended an appropriation providing for the employment of fifty additional patrolmen. For the purpose of increasing the efficiency of the department a special item has been placed in the budget to start the installation of the most modern system of police communication.

The Fire Department budget has been increased to the amount of $65,109. This will provide for the installation of a new company in the recently completed fire house at Third and Arthur streets, and will enable the Department to proceed with its normal program of acquisition of new equipment.

Additional funds allotted to the Department of Public Health make provision for the employment of a new unit of twenty nurses to minister to the needs of the aged inmates of the Laguna Honda Home. A special appropriation of $75,000 is recommended for the operation and maintenance of the new Pulgas Sanitarium for tubercular patients in the hills of San Mateo County.

and for the improvement of the grounds and roadways of that institution. A chapel for religious services, to cost $30,000, is provided for the San Francisco Hospital.

The Committee has recommended a progressive program for the improvement and extension of our Public Park system. Initial appropriations have been placed in the budget for the acquisition of a new park on the summit of Mt. Davidson and for the improvement of Larsen Park, in the Sunset District, recently donated to the City. The current appropriation for the purchase of lands for the John McLaren Park, in the Mission, has been increased to $150,000, in order that the completion of this important recreational center may proceed as rapidly as possible. The construction of a new unit, connecting Golden Gate Park with the Presidio, will complete a continuous system of bridle paths thirty-five miles in length for the enjoyment of equestrians. Twenty-five thousand dollars is provided for the improvement of the de Young Museum in Golden Gate Park.

Your Committee, acting upon the recommendation of the Streets Committee of this Board, presents for your approval the most extensive program for the construction of boulevards and streets ever undertaken in the history of San Francisco. By making the estimated cost of reconstruction of a number of important traffic streets a charge against the increased revenue which this City and County will receive from the State Good Roads Fund next year, your Committee has been able to recommend a reduction in the amount of money which the taxpayers will be required to contribute to this augmented program. It is estimated that San Francisco will receive more than a million dollars from the Good Roads Fund during the next fiscal year. Among the important major boulevard projects which are embraced in the program submitted are the Bay Shore Highway, Alemany boulevard, Grand View avenue, Junipero Serra boulevard, Laguna Honda boulevard, Market street extension, widening of Geary street west of Van Ness avenue, Potrero avenue from Sixteenth street southerly, Roosevelt way, San Jose avenue from Paulding to Mt. Vernon, Silver avenue from San Bruno to Oakdale, widening of Valencia street and the upper road at the beach. By judicious and economical use of the funds which will be available, your Committee feels certain that the entire program recommended can be carried out during the coming year.

In order that the increasing mileage of our city streets may be kept clean and presentable in appearance, provision has been made in the budget for an increase in the number of street sweepers employed by the Board of Public Works.

Another vitally important municipal function for which an increased appropriation is recommended is the lighting of our streets. The amount of money allotted for this purpose, which greatly exceeds any previous appropriation, has been adopted in accordance with a recomdation of the Lighting Committee of the Board, which is now engaged in making a scientific survey and study of the entire street lighting system. It is believed that as a result of this survey important economies may be effected in the future cost of lighting our streets and the Committee is confident that the amount recommended for next year will be ample to meet the growing needs of the City.

The budget contains an appropriation of $50,000 for the improvement, operation and maintenance of the new Mills Municipal Airport of San Francisco, which has recently been dedicated as the western terminal of our national air mail service. This appropriation, according to careful estimates submitted by the Committee in charge of the airport, will provide for the construction of new hangars and for every anticipated development of the new field during the coming year.

Important increases for the various charitable activities supported by our taxpayers are included in the budget. Among these increases are the appropriations for the maintenance of minors and for the support of the feeble-minded home.

The Board of Supervisors has recently been advised by the Auditor and the City Attorney that the only budget fund from which emergency appropriations for the relief of stricken communities, such as the Mississippi Valley flood area, can legally be made is the Publicity and Advertising Fund. In order to provide for the possibility of future demands of this kind, such as have recently been made upon the City, and to enable a more extensive advertising campaign to be carried on, your Committee has recommended that this appropriation be doubled in the next fiscal year.

The Traffic Committee of the Board of Supervisors, which was created when this Board was reorganized less than a year and a half ago, has, by the installation of traffic signals and markers thruoghout the City, made it possible to release twenty-two members of the Police Department from fixed traffic stations, thus increasing the number of officers available for other departments of police duty. Your Committee has been able to recommend a reduced appropriation for traffic which will be ample for the normal extension of our improved system of traffic regulation.

A scientific reappraisal of all of the taxable land in the City and County, which has been conducted with the cooperation of property owners in every section of the City, is now virtually complete. It will be submitted, after careful checking, to this Board in the near future, by the committee of citizens who have supervised the work, with a recommendation that it be placed upon the assessment rolls for the future collection of taxes. It is the unanimous opinion of the citizens who have participated in this public appraisal that the work should be continued during the coming year so that it may include a valuation of all improvements upon real property. Your Committee believes that the completion of this work is a vital necessity to the end that the assessments of property may be equalized throughout the City in the interest of all taxpayers. We have therefore included an appropriation of $125,000, which is a conservative estimate of the cost of the work.

Several new fixed charges against the tax revenues have been given consideration by your Committee in drafting the budget now before you. Among these is an item of $100,000 for the payment of pensions to former teachers who were retired from the school department before the present retirement system was legally in effect. An appropriation of $27,000 is set up to meet the annual liability of the City in connection with a recent tax judgment entered in favor of the Southern Pacific Company.

Among the various special projects inaugurated by this budget, mention should be made of an item for the improvement of land already owned by the City in Noe Valley for playground purposes.

Provision is made in the budget to perpetuate salary increases authorized by the Board of Supervisors during the current fiscal fear for the benefit of employees who were previously listed in the lowest ranks of the municipal salary scale. Salary raises put into effect by the State Legislature, during its recent session, with the consent of this Board of Supervisors, are also recognized. These embrace the superior judges, justices of the peace, adult probation and juvenile probation departments. Your Finance Committee has declined to make provision for any salary advances which were attempted to be put into effect by administrative or executive branches of the City government without the official consent of the Board of Supervisors. One year ago this Board, in compliance mith the mandate for economy issued by the people, did not authorize a single salary increase which had not previously been sanctioned by this Board. During the intervening year various recommendations for increases of salary for state and municipal officials have been submitted to the electorate by initiative petition, and in every instance the people have emphatically voted no. Your committee has, therefore, followed its former policy in compiling the present budget, and not a single salary increase not previously authorized by this Board has been recommended. The wisdom of this policy is supported by the records of the City purchasing department, which have been made available this year for the first time, for analyzing and checking the requests of municipal departments for materials and supplies. These records indicate that the trend of prices for most of the necessities of living is downward.

After a series of conferences with the Civil Service Commission the Finance Committee has recommended an appropriation which is estimated to be sufficient to complete, before the end of the next fiscal year, a scientific classifiication, according to duties of all the employments in the City and County service. It is hoped by your committee that a permanent standardization of salaries, based upon this classification of duties, may be put into effect next year. We believe that until this work is finished no extensive changes should be made in the present salary schedules.

The foregoing summary of the budget estimate is presented with the conviction that it merits the most careful scrutiny by every taxpayer of San Francisco.

Respectfully,

JAMES B. McSHEEHY,
MILO F. KENT,
FRANCK R. HAVENNER,
Finance Committee.

German Ambassador Visits Board.

At the conclusion of the reception in honor of the German Ambassador and others held in the rotunda of the City Hall, the guests of honor visited the Board. After having sat in the Mayor's chair, he made a short talk and then handing the gavel to Mayor Rolph, said he would relinquish the seat of honor to him. That he felt that the Mayor was much better qualified to fill the position both spiritually and physically. In speaking a word of welcome on behalf of the Board, Supervisor Byington said:

"I know I voice the sentiment of every man in America when I say we hope the guns of America and the guns of the Great German Republic will never be aimed at each other again."

Confirmation of Sale of Lands.

Bill No. 8026, Ordinance No. 7544 (New Series), as follows:

Confirming the sale of lands owned by the City and County of San Francisco and situate in the City and County of San Francisco, State of California.

Whereas, by Ordinance No. 7387 (New Series), approved January 28, 1927, the Board of Supervisors determined that public interest and necessity demanded the sale of the lands hereinafter described, and by said ordinance directed the Mayor of the City and County of San Francisco to sell all of said lands at private sale, and directed that notice of said sale be given for two weeks successively next before the sale, as required by law; and

Whereas, the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors thereafter proceeded to publish notice of said sale in the official newspaper and one other daily newspaper published in the City and County of San Francisco, for two weeks successively next before said sale was directed to be made, describing the lands to be sold therein with common certainty and stating the date on which said sale would be made, as specified in Ordinance No. 7387 (New Series), and that all bids or offers would be received by the Mayor at his office in the City Hall, City and County of San Francisco, State of California, on March 3, 1927; and

Whereas, the Mayor, the Assessor and the Chairman of the Finance Committee, being the Board of Appraisers constituted by the Charter of the City and County of San Francisco for such purpose, thereafter duly met and made an appraisement of said lands and fixed the fair value thereof, and reported said appraisement to the Board of Supervisors in writing; and

Whereas, thereafter, and on the 3d day of March, 1927, at private sale, the Mayor of the City and County of San Francisco sold said parcels of land to the following named corporation, Meyer Bros., a corporation, for $11,635, and accepted from said corporation a deposit in the amount of ten per cent or more of the amount bid, and thereafter, and at the next meeting of the Board of Supervisors, March 7, 1927, duly notified the Board of Supervisors in writing of the fact of such sale, stating the amount bid, the name of the bidder, and requesting that the Board confirm the sale; and

Whereas, the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors immediately thereupon proceeded to give notice by publication in the official newspaper and one other newspaper published in the City and County, for a period of 20 days from and after the 9th day of March, 1927, that at a meeting of the Board of Supervisors to be held on the 4th day of April, 1927, the matter of said sale would come up for confirmation, stating also in said notice the fact of the sale and amount for which the lands had been sold, as aforesaid, and the name of the purchaser, and also stating that if at such meeting on the 4th day of April, 1927, an offer of 10 per cent more in amount than that named in said notice should be made to the Supervisors in writing by a responsible person, the Supervisors would confirm such sale to such person or order a new sale; and

Whereas, the said confirmation of sale of said property was taken up on the 4th day of April, 1927, and, upon motion in the Board of Supervisors, action thereon was postponed until May 2, 1927; and

Whereas, May 2, 1927, having now arrived and a higher bid has been obtained, namely, $18,000 from Meyer Bros., being an increase over their former bid, and it appearing to the Board of Supervisors that the said amount is not disproportionate to the value of the property sold and that a greater amount cannot be obtained; therefore,

Be it ordained by the People of the City and County of San Francisco as follows:

Section 1. That said sale of said lands hereinafter described is hereby ratified, approved and confirmed to Meyer Bros., and the Mayor and the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors are hereby authorized to execute and deliver to said purchaser, upon the payment of the balance of the purchase price, a good and sufficient conveyance in the name of the City and County of San Francisco, conveying all the right, title and interest of the City and County of San Francisco in and to the lands sold as aforesaid, and more particularly described as follows, to-wit:

All those certain lots, pieces or parcels of land in the City and County of San Francisco, State of California, described as follows:

Referred to Public Utilities Committee.

Public Utility Commission as Recommended by City Attorney.

May 16, 1927.

Honorable Board of Supervisors,
City Hall, City.

Dear Sirs:

Pursuant to the resolution passed by your Honorable Board, I have prepared and herewith transmit to you a Charter amendment providing for a Public Utility Commission, to have control of all municipally owned utilities and especially of our water, light, heat and transportation systems.

In the preparation of this amendment, I experienced no small difficulty, for the reason that your resolution was silent as to any definite plan for such a Commission, and contained no statement which would give to me the desire of your Board as to the number of members which would comprise the Commission, how they should be selected, what their compensation should be, nor what power should be vested in them. Pursuant to a subsequent resolution of your Board, I did, however, consult with various civic organizations relative to the provisions and form of the requested amendment. In this regard I obtained the views of representatives of the Bar Association of San Francisco, of the Labor Council of San Francisco, of the Building Trades Council of San Francisco, of the Chamber of Commerce and of the Bureau of Governmental Research, and take this opportunity of expressing my sincere thanks to these organizations and to those who represented them in conference with me.

While the representatives of the organizations mentioned were in accord that a Public Utility Commission should have charge of our municipally owned utilities, there was some divergence of opinion as to the number of persons who should constitute the Commission, how it should be appointed and what its powers should be. Some were in favor that the membership of the Commission should be limited to three, and that those appointed should give their entire time to its duties and receive a very substantial compensation for their service. Others favored a larger membership, and felt that those appointed should give their time to the duties of the office without cost, and that the real work should be performed by a general manager, who would receive a substantial salary. Others felt that the Commission should consist of five members, who should receive a nominal compensation, based upon attendance at meetings, and that a general manager should have the active charge of the affairs of the Commission, the latter body acting practically in the same capacity as would a board of directors of a private corporation.

As to the method of appointment, all practically agreed that the appointment should rest with the Mayor, but some felt that the power given to the Mayor in this regard should be subject to limitation and that the appointees made by him should receive the confirmation of the Board of Supervisors.

In regard to the rate fixing power of the Commission, some of the representatives expressed the view that the Board of Supervisors should have authority to review the action of the Commission in the matter of rates to be charged by the various utilities, while others were in favor of vesting complete authority in the Commission on this point.

It has not been possible for me to harmonize all of the divergent opinions expressed by those consulted. I have, however, adopted many of their suggestions on the matters discused. On points on which we could not agree I have to a large measure been guided by provisions of utility acts of other cities, which seem to have provided an efficient method which is giving satisfaction in those cities. In lieu of both suggestions from those consulted and provisions of other acts, I have in many cases substituted my own views on the particular subject, believing that the latter are better adapted to San Francisco.

Sincerely yours,

JNO. J. O'TOOLE,
City Attorney.

City Attorney O'Toole explained the provisions of the proposed Charter amendment, which, with some minor changes, was, on motion of Supervisor Havenner, ordered submitted to the electors at the next general election, November 8, 1928, by the following vote, to-wit:

Upon completion of said hearings the Commission shall by resolution adopt a budget for each utility under its jurisdiction and transmit a copy thereof to the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors and another copy to the Mayor. After adoption of said budget, expenditures for the fiscal year covered thereby shall not be in excess of the budget appropriations for the respective items thereof. Under no circumstances shall the budget of any utility include a total of items of expenditure and reserves in excess of the estimated revenues to be derived from said utility during the succeeding fiscal year, unless after written request to the Board of Supervisors from the Commission, the latter tribunal shall authorize by ordinance a specified amount to be transferred to the Commission's jurisdiction from appropriate municipal funds under control of the Board of Supervisors; provided, also, that this limitation on expenditures shall not apply to expenditures for new construction or acquisitions which may be lawfully paid out of the proceeds of bond sales or accumulated surpluses under the Commission's jurisdiction. The funds of one utility shall not be diverted to any other utility, but if a surplus is accumulated out of the revenues of a given utility in excess of the maximum surplus which may be lawfully retained to its credit as in this article provided, such surplus shall automatically pass to and become part of the General Fund of the City and County and shall be so credited on the books of the Commission and of the City and County Auditor; provided that the Commission may with the consent of all of its members adopt a program for the accumulation of a surplus to cover a period not exceeding ten years, for the purpose of financing extensions and additions to existing utilities out of said accumulation, and when such program is adopted by said Commission, no transfer of surplus to the General Fund shall be made until said surplus fund exceeds the total sum estimated in said program as being necessary for such extensions or additions; provided that no funds accumulated from one utility shall be used for financing extensions or additions to another, and provided futher that when said program is adopted pursuant to the consent of said Commission, and a fund or any part thereof is accumulated, neither said fund nor any part thereof shall be used for any purpose other than that provided for in said program without the approval of the Board of Supervisors expressed by ordinance authorizing such other use.

Bond Sales.

Section 11. The Utility Commission is hereby vested with full and exclusive authority to sell or order the sale of bonds which have heretofore been or may hereafter be authorized by the voters of the City and County for the acquisition, construction, extension, or completion of any public utility or utilities; provided that such sale shall otherwise be conducted in accordance with the procedure specified by this Charter for the sale of bonds. For the purpose of such sales the Secretary of the Commission is hereby vested with the authority and duties conferred upon the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors by Section 10 of Article XII of this Charter and the Commission is authorized to perform all acts and exercise all powers conferred upon the Board of Supervisors and the Mayor by Article XII of the Charter, with reference to the sale of such public utility bonds, and where the concurrence of fourteen votes of the Supervisors is required, such act shall require the unanimous vote of the Commission. Each of such public utility bonds shall be signed by the Mayor, the President of the Utility Commission and the City Treasurer, and shall be countersigned by the City Auditor. The signature of the Mayor and the President of the Public Utility Commission may be by facsimile. The provisions of Section 11a of Article XII of the Charter shall apply to all such signatures.

Provision for Interest and Sinking Fund.

Section 12. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Charter, where bonds have been authorized for the acquisition, construction or completion of a public utility or of extensions thereto, and have been sold by the Commission, interest which may become due on said bonds during the actual period of construction of said utility, or of extensions to an existing utility as the case may be, and during the period of six months immediately following the completion of the same, may by a unanimous vote of the Commissioners be ordered paid out of the proceeds of sale of the bonds authorized and sold for such construction purposes. No sale of bonds shall be made by the Commission when there are insufficient revenues on hand in the Treasury to the credit of the bond interest and redemption fund of the utility for which said bonds have been authorized from which to meet the interest and redemption charges on said bonds during the ensuing twelve months, unless and until the Board of Supervisors shall authorize such sale by ordinance, or, unless and until the Commission shall have appropriated and set aside out of the proceeds to be realized from the sale of said bonds a sum sufficient to meet the interest and sinking fund requirements as hereinabove provided for; provided further, that nothing contained in this section shall in any way relieve the City and County from liability to the holders of said bonds for the payment of interest and principal thereof when and as the same become due, and in the event of any failure, refusal or neglect on the part of the Commission to make provision for payment of bond interest and redemption as hereinabove provided for, they shall be forthwith removed from office and the Board of Supervisors shall provide for the same as required under Sections 12 and 13 of Article XII of said Charter, and subject to the penalties prescribed in said sections.

Operating Expenses and Reserves.

Section 13. The receipts from each utility operated by the Commission shall be paid daily into the City Treasury and maintained in a special fund set aside for such utility. The Commission may from time to time make appropriations from said fund to the following purposes, in the order named, viz.:

(a) For payment of the operating expenses of such utility, including pension charges and compensation insurance;

(b) For repairs and maintenance;

(c) For depreciation and accident reserves as hereinafter described;

(d) For payment of interest and sinking fund on the bonds issued for the acquisition or construction of such utility and extensions thereto;

(e) For reserve funds out of which to construct or acquire extensions and betterments to said utility;

(f) For a surplus reserve.

Whenever said surplus reserve shall amount to the equivalent of the estimated operating expenses, reserve allotments and interest charges for the current fiscal year, the excess shall be subject to automatic transfer to the General Fund, as provided in Section 10 hereof, and subject to the exception therein mentioned.

The Commission shall maintain pension and compensation insurance accounts for each utility, and shall cause an estimate to be made annually of the proper reserves required for each such account, and any surpluses in any such account may be transferred to the surplus account of the utility concerned.

The Commission shall, on the written recommendation of the Manager of Utilities, which recommendation shall be based on an appraisal of the life of the several classes of property for each utility, determine the amount of a reasonable depreciation reserve for each utility to be set up out of the revenues of such utility to provide for depreciation and obsolescence as they accrue. There shall be credited monthly to the depreciation reserve for each utility, one-twelfth of the amount required annually, as so determined. Pending such appraisal, the monthly appropriations to be made to the depreciation reserve shall be at the rate of not less than four per cent of the historical cost of the utility. Such depreciation reserves shall be used only for replacement due to depreciation or obsolescence; provided, however, that every five years the Commission shall cause a reappraisal to be made of depreciation reserves, replacement expenditures therefrom, and probable useful life of each of the several kinds of property, and on the basis of such reappraisal may increase or diminish the amount to be appropriated to the depreciation reserve.

The Commission shall cause a reasonable accident reserve to be created for each utility by monthly credits thereto from the revenues of such utility, and shall reappraise this at five-year intervals, and may increase or diminish the amount of payments thereto on the basis of such reappraisal. The accident reserve fund for every utility shall be used only for the payment of accident and damage claims against such utility.

Rates.

Section 14. The Commission shall have the power to fix and adjust rates or fares for the furnishing of public utility service by the City and County; to collect, and by appropriate means, including the discontinuation of service to delinquent consumers, or by civil action in the name of the City and County, enforce the collection of such rates and charges; and to adjust and settle all complaints and claims of consumers or the public with reference to service credits or refunds; provided, that such rates may be fixed at varying scales, for different classes of service or consumers, which said rates must include rates for services rendered any department or other utilities of the City and County, the aggregate revenue from which for each specific utility shall represent not less than the actual total cost of the service of that utility as determined by the Commission; provided further, that when the Utility Commission on the basis of a financial analysis in writing by the Manager of Utilities, may recommend to the Board of Supervisors a scale of rates under which estimated aggregate revenue from a specific utility may represent less than the actual cost of the service rendered by such utility, the Board of Supervisors, by a two-thirds vote of all members, may authorize such scale of rates, and must, at the same time, specify the manner in which the estimated annual operating deficits will be met. Such rate schedule may then be adopted by the Commission. The Commission may provide for the rendition of utility services without the limits of the City and County at rates which may include proportionate compensation for interest during construction of the utility which may have been paid out of the revenues derived from taxation in the City and County. Services rendered by any other City and County department to any publicly-owned utility under the jurisdiction of the Commission shall be paid for by the Commission at cost, out of the revenues of the utility served. Rates for services rendered by any publicly-owned utility to the City and County or any department thereof, or to any other utility of the City and County, shall be paid into the fund of the specific utility rendering such services, out of appropriate funds of the City and County, or of the department or utility using such services.

Lease and Sale of Lands.

Section 15. The Commission may, with the approval of the Board of Supervisors, lease, for purposes not in conflict with public utility uses, any lands controlled by it or placed in its charge, for terms not exceeding ten years. The Commission may, in the name of the City and County, acquire and take by purchase, lease, condemnation or otherwise, and hold any or all property situated within or without the limits of the City and County that it may determine to be necessary for the construction, maintenance, extension or operation of the works under its jurisdiction and control. It shall be the duty of the Board of Supervisors upon its receipt of a resolution of the Commission that the acquisition of any property or properties are necessary for the conduct, operation, maintenance or extension of any utility under the jurisdiction of the Commission to take the necessary legislative action by resolution or ordinance determining that public interest and necessity require the taking of said property or properties for the purpose specified in said resolution of said Commission and that said property or properties are necessary for said utility, and the said resolution of said Commission shall be deemed to be conclusive proof to the Board of Supervisors as to the necessity of said property for the said use specified therein.

The Commission may, with the prior approval of the Board of Supervisors, expressed by ordinance, on terms to be expressed in said ordinance, sell such lands or other property under its control as are no longer used or useful for its purposes, or may, upon like authority, transfer such lands or other property to any other department of the City and County government, upon there being transferred to the special fund of the utility concerned such funds as will represent proper and adequate consideration for the land or other property transferred, as determined in the ordinance authorizing the same. The Commission shall have full power and authority to enter into such arrangements and agreements as it shall deem proper for the joint use with any other person, firm or corporation owning the same, or having jurisdiction of the same, of poles, conduits, towers, stations, aqueducts, reservoirs and tracks for the operation of any of the utilities under its jurisdiction, and may make such arrangements as it shall deem proper for the exchange of transfer privileges with any privately-owned transportation company or system which will tend for the betterment of its service.

Pensions.

Section 16. All employees of the utilities under the jurisdiction of the Commission shall be entitled to the benefits of the provisions of Article XVII of the Charter, relative to the retirement of aged and disabled employees, and for the purpose of enjoying the benefits provided for in said article all employees of said utilities shall be deemed to be public employees of the City and County, and all amounts to be contributed to said fund to equal the amounts contributed by said employees thereto shall be paid from the particular utility to which said employee is attached, and should any employee be rendering service to more than one utility, the amount contributed to equal said employee's contribution shall be divided among the utilities in which he is serving, in such porportion as the Commission shall determine.

Additional Powers.

Section 17. Nothing in this article contained shall be construed to be a limitation upon the power which may be conferred upon said Utility Commission or upon the powers which may be exercised by said Commission, and the Board of Supervisors, by ordinance adopted in the manner provided in the Charter, may confer additional and other powers on said Commission incident to those herein conferred, and may place under the control of said Commission the duty of lighting all public streets, lanes, places, parks and public buildings, any other provision of the Charter to the contrary notwithstanding.

Deposit of Surplus Money.

Section 18. At any time that there is on deposit in the office of the Treasurer of the City and County funds belonging to said Commission or to the utilities under its control, in an amount greater than is necessary for the immediate needs of said utilities, the said Treasurer shall, upon the direction of the Commission, offer so much of said funds as said Commission shall direct for deposit in such bank or banks as shall accept the same, said deposits to be made only upon the security provided for in and pursuant to the provisions of Section 2, Chapter III of Article IV of the Charter, and all interest received by the said Treasurer upon the said funds so deposited shall be credited to the particular utility to which the said funds deposited may belong.

The people of the City and County of San Francisco hereby declare that they would have ratified and adopted and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have approved this article and each section, subsection, sentence, clause and phrase thereof as an amendment to the Charter of the City and County of San Francisco, irrespective of the fact that any one or more other sections, subsections, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared unconstitutional.

Report of Supervisor McSheehy on Cancellation of Lease at 333 Kearny Street.

The following was presented and read by the Clerk:

May 16, 1927.

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors, City and County of San Francisco, City Hall, San Francisco, California.

Gentlemen:

On August 6, 1925, a report from the Grand Jury was filed, calling our attention to the crowded condition of the officials functioning in the Hall of Justice.

A motion was made in December, 1925, that a Special Committee be appointed to investigate the report of the Grand Jury of August 6, 1925. In February, 1926, this Special Committee was augmented by the addition of the Building Committee.

On December 27, 1926, the Joint Committee reported that office space should be rented in some office building as close as possible to the Hall of Justice. The Chairman of the Building Committee objected to the report, claiming that certain alterations could be made to the Hall of Justice which would give sufficient floor space for the officials to properly carry on their work.

The report of the majority of the Committee was concurred in by ten (10) members of the Board of Supervisors, and offices were leased at 333 Kearny street for a term of five (5) years two and one-half months, for a total rental of $74,081, or a yearly rental of $14,223.60.

Some three (3) years ago the Police Photograph Gallery in the Hall of Justice was destroyed by fire and for two (2) years the previous Buildings and Finance Committees made no effort whatsoever to restore this gallery. The gallery had to function, and in doing so, crowded the Police Department into such small space that they were unable to carry on their work properly. The present Building and Finance Committee have recognized the fact of the crowded conditions at the Hall of Justice and have expended the sum of $35,000 to remedy these conditions, so that today the Police Department has 8291 square feet more floor space than they had one year ago; the District Attorney, Adult Probation Officer and the Public Defender will have about the same floor space as they now have at 333 Kearny street. The Grand Jury and the Bond and Warrant Clerk of the District Attorney's office have never occupied offices at 333 Kearny street and the City have been charged a rental of $136.65 per month for these offices and they have never left the Hall of Justice.

Supervisor Byington, a former District Attorney, has told this Board in no uncertain language that it is almost a crime to have the District Attorney four (4) blocks away from the Hall of Justice. The District Attorney is part and parcel of the Police Department; the Adult Probation Officer and the Public Defender likewise. So that there is no denying the fact that these three departments cannot function as they should four blocks away. As chairman of the Finance Committee it is my duty to call to your attention, my colleagues, everything that is a wsate of public funds.

To avoid argument I will agree that a majority of this Board were right in renting rooms at 333 Kearny street one year ago. Since then alterations have been made that have cost the City $35,000. These alterations will give to these officials more floor space than they now have at 333 Kearny street. Therefore, I feel that it would be a positive waste of $14,223.60 which we will have to put into next year's budget if we do not cancel the lease that we have at 333 Kearny street and restore the offices to their old quarters in the Hall of Justice.

In closing, I hope that a majority of the members will see fit to cancel this lease which can be done by giving the usual three months' notice and move back to the Hall of Justice the officials that rightly belong there.

The renting of these offices has caused more personal friction on this Board than any other problem that we have had in the past year and a half, and I hope and trust that we will end this matter here once and for all.

Respectfully submitted,
J. B. McSHEEHY,
Supervisor.

Supervisor Shannon moved that the report be referred to the City Attorney for his opinion and to be reported two weeks from today.

So ordered.

Report of Supervisor McSheehy on Demand for Rental of 333 Kearny Street.

The following presented and read by the Clerk:

San Francisco, May 16, 1927.

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors, City and County of San Francisco.

Gentlemen:

On May 9th the following letter was referred to the Finance Committee:

"About one year ago the City entered into a lease for the rental of the premises 333 Kearny street, and up to the present time Mr. James McSheehy and Mr. Chas. J. Powers have refused to make the payments in accordance with the lease entered into.

The Board of Supervisors have appropriated the money and set it aside. The City Attorney has repeatedly ruled that the payment must be met. My attorney, Mr. Harrington, has been to the Finance Committee on many occasions but Mr. McSheehy has repeatedly passed the buck. He has no reason to offer why the payment should not be made and he has no right arbitrarily to hold up a taxpayers' money due him without some objections.

I respectfully request of your Honorable Board to have the matter placed on the calendar and definitely settled.

Thanking you for any action you may take, I am

Yours very truly,
RALPH McLERAN."

A statement was made in this Board some months ago by Mr. Wm. H. Nicholls, Adult Probation Officer, and also to me over the telephone last Saturday, that former Supervisor Ralph McLeran ordered the furnishing and erection of certain mill work in the month of August, 1926, at 333 Kearny street, amounting to $921.85. Mr. Leonard Leavy, Purchasing Agent, stated to me over the telephone last Saturday that no requisition was ever issued for this work and he referred the bill to the Building Committee. He also told me that the work was done by the Empire Mill Co., located on Bryant street near Sixth street. I rang up the mill company and the foreman in charge told me that the order was brought in by Mr. Harry Gatchen, the manager, who was out of the City and would not return before next Wednesday, and that he personally did not know anything about it.

The following is a report received by me from the California Title Insurance Company showing the ownership of the building known as 333 Kearny street:

"Sixth: Resolution of MacDonough Estate Company, dated March 15, 1923, and recorded April 6, 1923, in 66 Official Records, 398, authorizing president or treasurer in conjunction with secretary or assistant secretary to sell or lease any and all real and personal property of said corporation.

Seventh: Deed, MacDonough Estate Company, a corporation, to James Rolph & Co., a corporation, dated March 15, 1923, and recorded April 6, 1923, in 666 Official Records, 399.

Eighth: Deed, James Rolph & Co., a corporation, to Ralph McLeran and Madeline E. McLeran, his wife, as joint tenants, dated April 5, 1923, and recorded April 6, 1923, in 400 Official Records, 666.

Ninth: Mortgage, Ralph McLeran and Madeline McLeran, his wife, to the San Francisco Savings and Loan Society, a corporation, dated April 5, 1923, and recorded April 6, 1923, in 686 Official Records, 165.

Tenth: Deed, Ralph McLeran and Madeline McLeran, his wife, to Louis T. Samuels, dated March 3, 1926, and recorded May 3, 1926, in 1279 Official Records, 100.

Eleventh: Deed, Louis T. Samuels and Pepi Samuels, his wife, to Ralph McLeran and Madeline McLeran, his wife, dated May 3, 1926, and recorded January 15, 1927, in 1408 Official Records, 266.

Twelfth: Deed, Ralph McLeran and Madeline E. McLeran, his wife, to A. P. Jacobs, dated January 13, 1927, and recorded January 15, 1927, in 1408 Official Records, 263.

Thirteenth: Judgment, vs. Louis T. Samuels and Alfred H. Bullion in favor of Leonora Brenran, docketed January 13, 1927. Case No. 155668."

In this report you will see that Louis T. Samuels was not the owner of the building on May 10, the date that the lease was adopted by the Board of Supervisors. Also in the lease there is a paragraph that states that the lessor agrees to make all necessary repairs during the term of the lease. I want to call your attention to the ownership of 333 Kearny street as reported by the California Title Insurance Company. According to their report Mr. Louis T. Samuels was not the owner of the building on May 10th. Therefore, as chairman of the Finance Committee, I felt that it was my duty to ask a report from the Building Committee of this Board as to the status of the claim for $921.85 from the Empire Mill Co. for materials and labor furnished 333 Kearny street.

In this year's budget, Item No. 79, there is the sum of $14,233 for the rental of 333 Kearny street. I have signed these demands every month and your Honorable Board has passed the same. I now find that Mr. Louis T. Samuels was not the owner of the building as far as our records show and perhaps had no right to collect the money. I also find that the office space in the building allotted to the Grand Jury and the Bond and Warrant Clerks has never been occupied, or, in other words, the City and County of San Francisco has been paying $136 per month for offices that are never used.

In the face of these facts, the bill for $921.85 for work ordered by former Supervisor Ralph McLeran in the building known as 333 Kearny street of which he was the owner and which he sold to A. P. Jacobs on January 13, 1927, I felt that it was my duty as chairman of the Finance Committee, charged with the responsibility of carefully guarding the City's funds to hold this bill for rental, as it is the only security that the City has until such time as the dispute as to the payment of the $921.85 claim of the Empire Mill Company has been settled.

An apology is due this Board for the discourteous letter sent to us on May 9th by former Supervisor Ralph McLeran.

JAS. B. McSHEEHY,
Chairman, Finance Committee.

Motion.

Supervisor Gallagher: I would like now to make a motion. My motion is that former Supervisor McLeran be advised that the language used in his letter to the Board is undignified and unbecoming an ex-officer of this City and County, and it is the judgment of this Board that the language being impolitic, undignified and unjust that it is due to the Board that he be requested to retract it.

Supervisors Powers seconded the motion.

Motion carried by the following vote:

Ayes—Supervisors Gallagher, Havenner, Kent, Marks, McSheehy, Powers, Schmidt, Stanton, Todd—9.

Noes — Supervisors Badaracco, Byington, Colman, Harrelson, Hayden, Roncovieri, Shannon—7.

Absent—Supervisors Bath, Deasy —2.

SPECIAL ORDER—2:30 P. M.

Majority Report.

San Francisco,
December 27, 1926.

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors, City and County of San Francisco.

Gentlemen:

Your majority committee on Public Buildings and Lands, to which was referred the resolution terminating the lease by the City of premises known as 333 Kearny street, now occupied by the District Attorney, Public Defender, the Adult Probation Officer and the Grand Jury, on the 1st day of May, 1927, and directing the said herein named officials to be reinstated in the Hall of Justice, would respectfully report that careful consideration has been given to the subject matter expressed in the resolution, taking into consideration that the alterations heretofore ordered and now under progress in the Hall of Justice will be completed within a period of about 90 days, and will, in the opinion of your committee, more adequately accommodate the hereinbefore referred to officials of the City and County.

Your committee has realized the inconvenience to the public by reason of the removal of the said officials from the Hall of Justice, with the thought of remedying such conditions at the earliest opportunity.

Your committee feels that it is a necessity, by reason of the duties of the District Attorney, the Public Defender and the Adult Probation Officer, that such offices should be in the Hall of Justice, contiguous to the court located therein. With this aim in view your committee would respectfully report in favor of the passing of the resolution cancelling the present lease of the premises No. 333 Kearny street, to take effect the 1st day of May, 1927, and of directing the removal of the hereinbefore mentioned offices and respective officials to the Hall of Justice, and to occupy the certain rooms hereinafter to be designated and assigned to them by the Public Buildings and Lands Committee of your Board.

Very respectfully,
CHAS. J. POWERS.
LEWIS F. BYINGTON.

Supervisor Powers Presents:

Whereas, in the month of ——— a resolution was introduced by a Special Committee and passed by a majority vote of the Board of Supervisors, directing the District Attorney, Public Defender, Adult Probation Officer and the County Grand Jury to move from their rooms in the Hall of Justice to No. 333 Kearny street; and

Whereas, this committee recommended that a lease be entered into between the Board of Supervisors and Louis T. Samuels for said property at a rental of 15 cents per square foot, amounting to $74,081.25, for a term of five (5) years, with a stipulation that the lease can be cancelled by giving ninety (90) days' notice to said owner; and

Whereas, since entering into this lease alterations have been made in the Hall of Justice which will provide for 7591 square feet of floor space, together with 4870 square feet now unoccupied, making a total of 12,461 square feet, which is more than sufficient to take care of the needs of the Police Department and of the other departments now occupying temporary quarters at No. 333 Kearny street; and

Whereas, the service rendered to the public has been very inadequate, owing to the distance of several blocks between the Hall of Justice and No. 333 Kearny street, and numerous complaints have been made; and

Whereas, the expenditure of $74,081.25 for the rental of these offices is a direct wastage of public funds and should terminate as soon as possible; and

Whereas, these alterations will be completed in about ninety (90) days from date and far better offices and accommodations will be provided for the District Attorney, the Public Defender, the Adult Probation Officer and the County Grand Jury in the Hall of Justice than they now have at No. 333 Kearny street; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the cancellation clause in the lease between the City and County of San Francisco and the owner of the building known as No. 333 Kearny street, entered into on the 2d day of June, 1926, be terminated on the 1st day of May, 1927, and that the District Attorney, Public Defender, Adult Probation Officer and the County

Grand Jury be directed to move from their offices at No. 333 Kearny street to the Hall of Justice and occupy rooms as designated by the Public Buildings and Lands Committee of this Board, and that proper furnishings and equipment be placed in said rooms.

Privilege of the Floor.

Mr. E. Eastman, representing Mr. Jacobs, the alleged owner of the property, was heard with reference to a continuance.

Supervisor Kent suggested that possibly a compromise of the situation, which has been confronting the Board for some time, might be effected by moving the District Attorney back to the Hall of Justice, but to leave the Public Defender and Adult Probation Officer at 333 Kearny street.

Supervisor Powers, chairman of the Building Committee, said he would see if he could not negotiate an amended lease to that effect and report to the Board.

Action Deferred.

Supervisor Kent moved that the matter of 333 Kearny street be postponed two weeks and that the Board instruct the Building Committee to negotiate for a modification of the lease with the owner of the property and report back its recommendation.

Motion carried.

Passed for Printing.

The following matters were passed for printing:

Section 8. All proposals shall be made upon forms to be prepared by the Board and furnished gratuitously upon application, with a form for the affidavit hereinafter provided for printed thereon. Each bid shall have thereon the affidavit of the bidder that such bid is genuine and not collusive or sham; that he has not colluded, conspired, connived, or agreed, directly or indirectly, with any other bidder or person to put in a sham bid, or that such other person shall refrain from bidding and has not in any manner sought by collusion to secure any advantage against the City and County, or any person interested in said improvement for himself or for any other person. No bid not so delivered to the Board shall be considered. Each bid, as it shall be received, shall be numbered and marked "Filed" by the President and authenticated by his signature. At the expiration of the hour stated in the advertisement within which the bids will be received, the Board shall, in open session, open, examine and publicly declare the same, and an abstract of each bid shall be recorded in the minutes of the Board by the Secretary. Before adjourning the Board shall compare the bids with the record made by the Secretary, and shall thereupon, at said time, or at such time, not exceeding twenty days thereafter, as the Board may adjourn to, award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder, except as otherwise herein provided. Notice of such award shall forthwith be posted for five days by the Secretary of the Board in some conspicuous place in the office of the Board, and be published for the same period of time.

The Board may reject any and all bids, and must reject the bid of any party who has been delinquent or unfaithful in any former contract with the City and County, and all bids other than the lowest regular bid of a responsible bidder; and on accepting said lowest bid shall thereupon return to the proper parties the checks corresponding to the bids so rejected. If all bids are rejected, the Board shall return all the checks to the proper parties and again invite sealed proposals as in the first instance.

The check accompanying the accepted bid shall be held by the Secretary of the Board until the contract for doing said work, as hereinafter provided, has been entered into, whereupon said certified check shall be returned to said bidder.

If said bidder fails or refuses to enter into the contract to do said work, as hereinafter provided, then the certified check accompanying his bid, and the amount therein mentioned, shall be forfeited to the City and County, and shall be collected and paid into the General Fund. Neither the Board of Public Works nor the Supervisors shall have power to relieve from or remit such forfeiture.

If at any time it shall be found that the person to whom a contract has been awarded has, in presenting any bid or bids colluded with any other party or parties, for the purpose of preventing any other bid being made, then the contract so awarded shall be null and void, and the Board shall advertise for a new contract for said work.

Section 10. If the contractor who may have entered into any contract does not complete the same within the time limited in the contract, or within such further time as is hereinafter provided, the Board may relet the unfinished portion of said work in accordance with the provisions in this ordinance prescribed with its own forces, any excess over the original contract price to be charged to the contractor in either event.

Section 11. All contracts shall be drawn under the supervision of the City Attorney, and shall contain detailed specifications of the work to be done, the manner in which it shall be executed, and the quality of the material to be used.

Every contract entered into by the Board shall be signed by at least two members thereof, and by the other contracting party. All contracts shall be signed in triplicate, one of which, with the specifications and drawings, if any, of the work to be done, and materials to be furnished, shall be filed with the Clerk of the Supervisors; one thereof, with said specifications and drawings, shall be kept in the office of the Board, and the other, with said specifications and drawings, shall be delivered to the contractor. At the same time with the execution of the contract the contractor shall execute to the City and County and deliver to the Secretary of the Board a bond in the sum named in the notice for proposals, with sufficient surety or sureties to be approved by the Board, or shall deposit with the Secretary a certified check upon some solvent bank for said amount, for the faithful performance of the contract, also a bond for the protection of laborers and materialmen conditioned as required in Section 7 of Article II, Chapter III, of the Charter, in an amount to be fixed by the Board of Public Works, not exceeding in any case the sum of five hundred thousand dollars, with sufficient surety or sureties to be approved by the Board. No surety on any bond other than lawfully authorized surety companies shall be taken.

Section 12. The contract shall specify the time within which the work shall be commenced, and when to be completed, as was specified in the notice inviting proposals therefor. The time for performance of such contracts may be extended by the Board of Public Works upon the written request of the contractor, duly approved by the City Engineer, showing grounds satisfactory to the Board of Public Works for such extension.

In case of failure on the part of the contractor to complete his contract within the time fixed in the contract, or within such extension of said time as is herein provided, his contract shall become void.

Section 13. Any of said contracts may provide for progressive payments to the contractor. But no progressive payments can be provided for or made at any time which, with prior payments, if there have been such, shall exceed in amount at that time ninety (90) per cent of the value of labor done and materials furnished and used up to that time, and no contract shall provide for, authorize, or permit the payment of more than ninety (90) per cent of the contract price before the completion and acceptance by the Board of the work done under said contract, except in the cases hereinafter specifically provided for; provided, that the limit of progress payments as above provided shall be seventy-five (75) per cent instead of ninety (90) per cent, until the twenty-five (25) per cent thus retained by the City in making such payments amounts to the sum of ten thousand dollars.

Section 14. In the case of contracts for the construction, purchase or installation of machinery or equipment required in connection with the water supply project, where a guaranty is required of the contractor as to the quality of workmanship and materials, or as to the performance of the said machinery or equipment under actual operating tests to be made over a period of time after it shall have been installed, the Board of Public Works may, in its discretion, upon completion of the delivery or installation of such machinery or equipment to the satisfaction of said Board, award to the contractor a certificate or conditional acceptance. Upon receipt of such certificate the contractor shall be entitled to receive the unpaid balance due him under the terms of said contract upon final acceptance of his work less such amount as the Board may deem necessary or proper to protect the City and County against loss in the event that such machinery or equipment fails to meet the contractor's guaranties under the working tests provided for in the contract.

Section 15. The work in this ordinance provided for must be done under the direction and to the satisfaction of the Board of Public Works; and the materials used must be in accordance with the specifications and be to the satisfaction of said Board, and all contracts provided for in this ordinance must contain a provision to that effect.

When said work shall have been completed to the satisfaction and acceptance of the Board, it shall so declare by resolution, and thereupon the Board shall deliver to the contractor a certificate to that effect.

Section 16. In any case where the Board of Public Works has advertised for bids in accordance with the procedure outlined in this ordinance, for articles, supplies, materials or equipment required for the water supply, and no bids have been received within the period specified in the advertisement, or in any case where the said Board has advertised for bids and all bids received are identical in amount or have been rejected, or where the articles, supplies, materials or equipment to be purchased or acquired are entirely owned or controlled by one person, firm or corporation and no satisfactory substitutes therefor exists in the opinion of said Board so that advertising for bids would be a useless formality, or the City Engineer reports that the necessities of construction require immediate purchase of said articles, supplies, materials or equipment in the open market at the lowest price obtainable, then, and in such cases, said Board of Public Works is authorized to purchase such articles, supplies, materials or equipment in the open market at the lowest obtainable price, not exceeding, however, any price which may have been submitted in the bids last previously received under the foregoing provisions of this ordinance within three months preceding the purchase.

Section 17. The Board of Public Works shall, on the recommendation of the head of the department and may of its own volition, require a bond from any employee in the employ of the said water department, which said bond will be duly conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of said employee, and shall be in such an amount as the said Board of Public Works shall determine. The premium on said bond shall be paid from the revenues of said water department.

Section 18. This ordinance shall become effective within thirty days after the people of the City and County of San Francisco shall by vote authorize the issuance of a bonded indebtedness for the purchase of the properties of the Spring Valley Water Company.

Referred to Public Utilities Committee.

Traffic Button Bids Rejected.

A communication from the City Attorney, based upon a communication from an expert patent attorney, stated that in his opinion, he did not think that the traffic button which the Kortic Manufacturing Company has proposed to manufacture for the City was an infringement on the patent rights of the Los Angeles firm, which has been protesting the award of the contract.

Privilege of the Floor.

Leonard S. Leavy, City Purchasing Agent, recommended rejection of all bids previously received and a call be issued for new bids for traffic buttons.

Mr. Selinger, representing Union Pipe and Tank Company, and Bacigalupi and Elkus were also heard.

Mr. McQuaide, representing Kortic & Co., wanted a clause in the contract insuring his firm against liability for litigation.

Bids Rejected.

Whereupon, on motion of Supervisor Shannon, all bids were rejected and Clerk advised to advertise for new bids.

Transcontinental Highway Exposition.

On motion of Supervisor Hayden, the Moyar was requested to represent the City at the opening of the Transcontinental Highway Exposition at Reno, Nevada, on June 25th, 1927, and to appoint a committee of five Supervisors to also represent the City.

Entertainment of Midshipmen.

His Honor the Mayor was authorized to appoint a committee to arrange for the reception of the squadron of United States midshipmen who will visit San Francisco July 1.

Taxation Contested.

A communication was presented from Los Angeles County that a representative of the City Attorney's office be present at the hearing on Wednesday of this week, when the hearing will be had as to the right to tax the Southern California Telephone Company's property. As the same condition applies to properties of public utilities in San Francisco, the communication was referred to the City Attorney with the request to have some one representing his office to be present at the hearing in Los Angeles.

RECESS.

Whereupon, the Board at 12:25 p. m. took a recess until 2 p. m.

REASSEMBLED—2 P. M.

The Board of Supervisors reassembled at 2 p. m.

CALLING THE ROLL.

The roll was called and the following Supervisors were noted present:

Supervisors Badaracco, Bath, Byington, Colman, Deasy, Gallagher, Harrelson, Havenner, Hayden, Kent, Marks, McSheehy, Powers, Roncovieri, Schmidt, Shannon, Stanton, Todd—18.

Quorum present.

His Honor Mayor Rolph being absent, Supervisor McSheehy was elected to preside.

BRIDGE MATTERS.

The following proceedings were had with respect to the proposed transbay bridge:

Supervisor Shannon: Mr. Chairman, 2 o'clock is the hour set for the special order for the hearing on bridge matters, and the consideration of the report of the engineers, and I move that the report of the engineers, Messrs. Ridgway, Talbot and Galloway, be adopted; that the Chairman of the Finance Committee be authorized to appoint a committee of three members of this Board to go to Washington to obtain the sanction of the United States government to the report, and that the Chairman of the Finance Committee be a member of that committee of three.

Supervisor Harrelson: Mr. Chairman, I am in sympathy with the motion, if it is timely. I question if that should be our next procedure. It seems to me that we should have some plans and estimates of costs to present to the authorities in Washington before any delegation goes there.

Supervisor Shannon: I would like to get a second so I can explain my motion.

Supervisor Schmidt: I will second the motion, even if I vote differently.

The Chairman: You have heard the motion as made by Supervisor Shannon, and the same has been regularly seconded. Are you ready for the question?

Supervisor Shannon: I make the motion for this reason, Mr. Chairman. At the time of the submission of the report to this Board by these three eminent engineers the newspapers of San Francisco and the press generally acknowledged that it was a very complete report, that the method of procedure should be as outlined in my motion, and the citizenship of San Francisco generally seems to be of the opinion that this is the method of procedure. By sending a committee of Supervisors to Washington we can determine just exactly if the report is in line with the War Department's views. I therefore feel that, as the members of the Board have had a full week in which to review this report, no time should be lost in sending the committee on to get the viewpoint of the authorities in Washington.

Supervisor Roncovieri: I wish to support the motion made by Supervisor Shannon, but I wish to amend it by a resolution that I have given to the secretary and which I will ask him to read.

Supervisor Colman: Might I interrupt? Owing to the great importance of this matter it seems only right that we should defer action for a few moments until all the members of the Board are present—all those who are going to attend.

Supervisor Shannon: I have no objection.

The Chairman: I think the suggestion is a very wise one.

* * * * * *

Supervisor Bath: Could I suggest our sending for the City Attorney?

The Chairman: Mr. Kreling, will you ask the City Attorney to step down here?

Supervisor Todd: Mr. Chairman, what are you waiting for?

The Chairman: Supervisor Shannon made a very important motion on the bridge matter, and before we took the matter up it was suggested that we see if we could not get a better attendance. I think we have the attendance now.

Supervisor Shannon: We are also waiting for the Chief Engineer and City Attorney O'Toole.

The Chairman: I think we can proceed, members of the Board. It is a hard matter to get every member in here. They keep passing in and passing out. Members of the Board, I think we can proceed. Step up, Chief O'Shaughnessy, if you do not mind, to the platform.

Supervisor Roncovieri: I have presented a resolution which I would ask to have read.

Supervisor Shannon: I was going to repeat my motion.

The Clerk: I have it transcribed, if you wish it.

The Chairman: Members of the Board, Supervisor Shannon made a motion, the Clerk has had it transcribed, and it has been duly seconded, and I will ask the Clerk to read Supervisor Shannon's motion, which has been duly seconded.

The Clerk: Motion by Supervisor Shannon, seconded by Supervisor Schmidt (reading): "I move that the report of the engineers, Messrs. Galloway, Ridgway and Talbot, be adopted; that the Chairman of the Finance Committee be authorized to appoint a committee of three members of this Board to go to Washington to obtain the sanction of the United States government to the report, and that the Chairman of the Finance Committee be a member of that committee of three."

Supervisor Roncovieri: I am in accord with the motion and what I have written here is in line with the same thought expressed by Supervisor Shannon, but an amendment, and so, as an amendment to that motion, I would like to have the Clerk read my amendment.

The Chairman: The amendment has been placed in writing and the Clerk will read the same.

The Clerk (reading):

"Whereas, it is the desire of the people of San Francisco that the best transbay bridge shall be built in the best location to connect San Francisco with the East Bay cities; and

"Whereas, an Advisory Board of Engineers of outstanding ability, consisting of Robert Ridgway, Arthur N. Talbot and John D. Galloway, has made a report recommending the three best locations for transbay bridges in the order of their importance and desirability; and

"Whereas, these three locations are all north of Hunters Point; and

"Whereas, the Board of Army Engineers representing the Government of the United States has declared that no transbay bridge north of Hunters Point will be allowed to be built; and

"Whereas, it is the desire of this Board of Supervisors that the types of bridges and the three locations selected as the best by the above-named engineers shall be submitted to the Board of Army Engineers for its approval, in the order of their importance and desirability, and in the most expert and scientific manner possible, in order to convince the said Board of Army Engineers that it should reverse the ruling it has heretofore made, viz., that no transbay bridge will be permitted north of Hunters Point; and

"Whereas, the experts best fitted to present the case of the people of the City and County of San Francisco in the most effective manner, are the above-named eminent engineers, who, together with City Engineer M. M. O'Shaughnessy, have made intensive studies that have resulted in the recommendations of the three best transbay bridges in the best locations; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That Location No. 1, having its westerly terminal at Rincon Hill and its easterly terminal at the Alameda Mole, be and the same is hereby selected as the site for said transbay bridge between the City and County of San Francisco and the County of Alameda; and be it

"Further Resolved, That Engineers Robt. Ridgway, Arthur N. Talbot, John D. Galloway and M. M. O'Shaughnessy are hereby respectfully requested to represent the Board of Supervisors of this City and County before the Board of Army Engineers in Washington, in the presentation of all the facts and figures, and all of the arguments in favor of the above-mentioned site, and that the report and the recommendations of the above-named engineers be and they are hereby approved and adopted by this Board and ordered sent to the Board of Army Engineers in Washington, D. C., for their consideration, and that the engineers above named be conferred with by the Finance Committee regarding compensation for their services at Washington."

Supervisor Hayden: I second that.

Supervisor Roncovieri: I present this in conjunction with the motion made by Supervisor Shannon. In my resolution I omitted a committee from this Board. I think that a committee from this Board might go, but I do not believe that the members of this Board—and I say it with a great deal of respect for every member of this Board—are as competent to present the arguments in favor of this report as are the engineers who have made the report. However, it might be well that members of this Board, a committee from this Board, should be in Washington, and that the presentation should be left largely to the experts who have practically sold their idea of a bridge across the Bay, in Location No. 1, or if that is denied, in Location No. 2, and if that is denied, in Location No. 3. I believe that the law requires that this Board should select a location before going on to Washington. If I am in error, the City Attorney is here, and he will correct me. I believe that it is necessary that a selection should be made in order to receive an official audience from the Army Engineers in Washington, before they will consider anything. And right here, may I ask City Attorney O'Toole if my statement is correct or incorrect?

City Attorney O'Toole: I think, Mr. Supervisor, possibly you are only partially correct. Of course, I cannot say what the Board of Army Engineers or the Secretary of War will consider, whether he will wait until we definitely select a site or whether he will give some expression of opinion as to whether he would permit the bridge at any particular locality, without the exact site being designated. Now, of course, before we can build a bridge we must select the site, and it must meet with the approval of the Secretary of War, but it is not absolutely necessary that that should be done before the Secretary of War and the Army Engineers will say whether or not they will permit a bridge north of Hunters Point or at any other particular locality.

Supervisor Roncovieri: I was under the impression that it was necessary to select a location before the Board in Washingotn, the Board of Army Engineers, would reverse themselves.

City Attorney O'Toole: Before they will approve the precise site, undoubtedly, but they may say that you may build the bridge within a certain area, without your picking out the precise site, and then when that is presented to them afterwards, they will give that particular site consideration.

Supervisor Roncovieri: I think my resolution is broad enough to even include the statement and the thought expressed by our City Attorney. I believe that a committee from this Board should probably go, but I do hope that this Board will enter into arrangements with the eminent men who have thus far served us, that they shall represent this Board in an official capacity, in an engineering capacity, in an expert capacity, and reinforce the committee by their expert arguments, with the Board of Army Engineers, who are naturally all experts, and experts can speak to experts in a way that I say, with a great deal of respect to every member of this Board, we cannot speak, with possibly one exception, Mr. Harrelson, who is an engineer himself. The rest of us, I believe, cannot speak to engineers in the language of engineers. It requires experts to talk to experts, and particularly in a case of this kind, where we are attempting to ask the Army Engineers to reverse a former ruling. I trust that this resolution, together with the motion made by Mr. Shannon, will be adopted.

Supervisor Hayden: Might I ask Supervisor Roncovieri this: I seconded your motion with the idea that the appointment of this commission would be in addition to the appointment of the committee of the Board of Supervisors. That was your purpose?

Supervisor Roncovieri: Yes.

Supervisor Colman: I am going to suggest that we take the matter up seriatim, and that we take up different points by themselves, and first take a vote on the approval of the report of the engineers.

The Chairman: You want the motion segregated?

Supervisor Colman: Yes, I would like to first approve and then discuss the other matters after that.

The Chairman: There cannot be any objection to the segregation, because any member has that right.

Supervisor Stanton: I would like to have that amendment read again, please.

Supervisor Byington: Could the whole thing be read again for our information? I just came in.

The Chairman: It has been asked that the original motion made by Supervisor Shannon be read, and the resolution introduced by Supervisor Roncovieri.

(The Clerk rereads the motion of Supervisor Shannon and the amendment presented by Supervisor Roncovieri.)

Supervisor Byington: I just want to make one suggestion to the Supervisor who introduced the amendment, and that is to strike from his resolution the words about reversing their previous ruling. It does no good to put that in there.

Supervisor Roncovieri: I am perfectly willing. Would you suggest what should go in?

Supervisor Schmidt: Modify.

The Chairman: Members of the Board——

Supervisor Roncovieri (interrupting): I am perfectly willing to accept the suggestion "to modify the ruling". Change it to "modify".

The Chairman: Supervisor Colman asked for a segregation. Do you wish a segregation of the amendment or a segregation of the original motion?

Supervisor Colman: First let us have a roll call approving the engineers' report on the location submitted.

The Chairman: I naturally have to take it up in a parliamentary order, the amendment first, and if you ask for a segregation of the amendment, of course, I will take it up that way; you have that right.

Supervisor Stanton: I think Supervisor Colman is right. He is asking first that the engineers' report either be accepted or rejected. Then, if there are any instructions coming from the Board as to how we shall proceed, or whom we shall send, that would seem to me to be a separate motion.

The Chairman: That is all right, I will take it up in the segregated form, if there is no objection.

Supervisor Bath: There is a point that comes up here, and I was not present during the consideration of this matter, but there is a point I would like to ask the City Attorney about, and probably the Board will be interested in it, before we take a roll call on this matter. Now, I assume that this Board, if we adopt the engineers' report, that we must adopt it as one, two and three. Now, I want to ask the City Attorney this: In case this Board should adopt No. 1, and that the Washington authorities should O. K. No. 1, and give their consent to No. 1, would that give the Construction Company of North America a priority or any precedence, or, in other words, would that be giving this company a franchise exclusive of the rest of them? Do I make myself clear?

City Attorney O'Toole: Yes, I think you do, Mr. Supervisor. (Statement of Supervisor Bath read by the reporter.)

The Chairman: Mr. Galloway, one of the engineers, has a statement that I would like the members to hear. I think it would clarify matters to some degree.

Supervisor Gallagher: Before the City Attorney answers——

Supervisor Stanton (interrupting): I would like to hear the answer to that question.

Supervisor Gallagher: I would like to hear the answer to that question now, if you do not object.

The Chairman: No, not at all.

City Attorney O'Toole: I will state, Mr. Chairman, and gentlemen of the Board, that I think the law is that, if you select a particular site, we will say it is Rincon Hill on one side, I believe the No. 1 proposition is Rincon Hill on one side and the Alameda Mole upon the other, the owner of the terminal at Rincon Hill will have the first privilege of constructing the bridge. If the owner of that particular terminal or that particular property which is to be the bridge terminal, does not desire to construct a bridge, then the owner of the terminal on the other side of the Bay will have the privilege, and should the owner of neither terminal desire to construct the bridge, then the Board has the privilege of granting, or has the right of granting that privilege, or the privilege of granting a franchise to any other applicant who makes application for that particular place. Now, if I may add just a suggestion, and only a suggestion, to the Board, that I notice, in the resolution or the amendment presented by Supervisor Roncovieri, that it provides for the selection of this particular site, while the resolution offered by Supervisor Shannon merely approves the recommendation of the Board of Bridge Engineers. Now, I do not believe that the report of the Board of Bridge Engineers goes so far as to select any definite site. They give you certain districts within which they believe the No. 1 proposition should be constructed, and a certain other district for No. 2, and so on, for No. 3. Now, if this Board today should select a definite site, and you should go back to Washington with the proposition in mind to build a bridge at that particular site, and the War Department should not give its approval to it, still there is a franchise outstanding and if, at any time in the future, or within a reasonable time in the future, the War Department, or the Bureau of Army Engineers, might make a change in their ruling, you might have two franchises out. The one that you would grant today from a particular site might be outstanding, and if the Board of Engineers and the War Department in Washington should turn it down or say you should not build a bridge within that particular area and you should let then a franchise to some applicant in some other area, and the Board of Army Engineers, or the War Department, should change their opinion, it might lead to some confusion, and unless you deem it necessary, unless this Board today wishes to select the site, I cannot see any legal necessity for selecting a definite site before you proceed to Washington to get the approval of a certain district.

Supervisor Roncovieri: In view of what City Attorney O'Toole has stated, I would have fallen into an error, and I wish to withdraw the first part of the resolution, in view of the statemest made by the City Attorney.

Supervisor Colman: I think the City Attorney is in error. It seems to me, the Board of Engineers have recommended a definite site. I would ask Mr. Galloway to answer that. Site No. 1 is a definite site as I understood it.

The Chairman: I have asked for the privilege of the floor for Mr. Galloway, and, members of the Board——

Supervisor Gallagher (interrupting): Is it necessary that Mr. Galloway be heard now, or cas we not examine the City Attorney for a few minutes?

The Chairman: Yes, if you want to examine him.

Supervisor Gallagher: Among the first remarks you made was that the owner—pardon me for not rising—the owner of the terminal shall have the first privilege.

City Attorney O'Toole: The terminal on the west bank of the stream has that.

Supervisor Gallagher: Will you clarify that to my mind? Does it mean, the owner per se of the land in question, all of it, or part of it, or does it mean those who may have options on the land in question?

City Attorney O'Toole: I think I have advised this Board before, Mr. Gallagher, if I remember my opinion correctly, that an option did not constitute ownership, but possibly any person who is the owner of the propery at the time the franchise was submitted to the State Engineer for his approval as to the width and length of the span and height of the draw, why possibly that particular person would be considered to be the owner and entitled to the privilege of the franchise.

Supervisor Gallagher: And if he were an applicant, automatically, under the State law, we must give him first preference?

City Attorney O'Toole: Yes.

Supervisor Gallagher: And then you say, failing in that, the owner of the land on the other side of the Bay comes in for first preference?

City Attorney O'Toole: Yes, the second preference.

Supervisor Gallagher: And supersedes the State law as to the right of the authorities on the left bank of the stream——

City Attorsey O'Toole (interrupting): It does not change the right as to who has the control of the tolls or who has control of the bridge or anything of that kind, but it merely gives to the owner on the other bank, the right bank, descending, the right of constructing the bridge, if the owner on the left bank does not desire to do so.

Supervisor Gallagher: Providing he is an applicant.

Supervisor Stanton: In other words, Mr. O'Toole, if this Board were to select a site, say No. 1, and then afterwards feel that they were in error, or did not care to go ahead with that particular site, or found reasons that they should not go ahead with it, then they would not be in a position to select No. 1, 2 or 3, but the Oakland people would be able to start the bridge from that side and build it, is that it?

City Attorney O'Toole: I do not quite understand your question. In other words, I take it——

Supervisor Stanton (interrupting): You say, as I understand you, that if we give a permit to build a bridge, and then we do not go ahead with it, the proponent who possibly would have the lands, whether own them or have them tied up on this side of the Bay, if we did not then go ahead with it, the Oakland people could go ahead?

City Attorney O'Toole: No, not if you did not go ahead, if the owner of the land does not go ahead.

Supervisor Stanton: Well, the proponent, whoever he might be, I am saying San Francisco——

Supervisor Gallagher (interrupting): You are wrong, the owner of the land on either side can have the preference under the State law, but he must have been an applicant for a franchise. Isn't that so? That is your statement, if I remember.

City Attorney O'Toole: No, it is not my statement, and I am not quite sure it is the law, Mr. Supervisor. Of course, the time must come when the receipt of applications for a particular locality must close.

Supervisor Marks: Are you proceeding under the 1881 statute?

City Attorney O'Toole: They are both so interwoven, and the Supreme Court has held that they both measure the procedure.

Supervisor Marks: What I had in mind was this: Whether that transfer of the right from the left bank to the right bank descending, where the franchise right is not exercised by the applicant on the left side of the bank, whether that does not assume that a franchise has been granted which has not been availed of?

City Attorney O'Toole: Yes, surely, I would not say the franchise, but the site has been selected.

Supervisor .Marks: In other words, if this Board today were to adopt a resolution saying, in effect, that the Board of Supervisors looks with favor upon the report of the engineers, that is our preference, is not that very far from the actual granting of a franchise?

City Attorney O'Toole: It certainly is very far.

Supervisor Marks: So that, if we did adopt that report, that would not commit this Board necessarily to grant a franchise, now would it give any rights to the applicant because such a resolution had been adopted.

City Attorney O'Toole: No, unless you designate that as a site from which the bridge is going to be built.

The Chairman: I was going to say, Supervisor Marks, if you will allow Mr. Galloway the floor for a minute.

Supervisor Marks: I think this is important.

The Chairman: He will touch upon that from his standpoint.

Supervisor Marks: Because there is a vast difference between the adoption of a resolution favoring a report which has been submitted and the actual legislative act whereby a franchise is granted.

City Attorney O'Toole: There is no question, you are right on that.

Supervisor Marks: And this resolution would not be the granting of a franchise?

Supervisor Byington: I want to ask a question along the line of Supervisor Marks' question: Do you mean to say, Mr. City Attorney, that, if we, in general terms, approve a bridge starting from Rincon Hill to the Alameda Mole, that that would give any particular right to any particular owner, at either end of the bridge? Would it not merely be the opinoin of this Board of Supervisors that we believe in a bridge crossing from approximately that site to approximately the other site, and we could go to Washington with that in view?

City Attorney O'Toole: Yes, if you make your designation no more direct than that I think you are safe.

Supervisor Byington: That is what I favor, a general plan so that it will give nobody any particular right.

The Chairman: Mr. Galloway.

Mr. Galloway: It is possible, gentlemen and Mr. Chairman, that I can clarify the subject of the debate, to a certain extent. The specific recommendation of our Board was what is known as the No. 1 location. We recommend that to you as the best location upon which a bridge should be built. And it was only because of the request of the resolution by which we were appointed that two other alternate sites be designated that we did so. We set forth, with a certain amount of clearness, and I hope entirely clear, that this location, which we had designated, is not necessarily the exact location, right down to a fraction of an inch. First and always in front of everything is a survey of the bottom of the bay, and until you have that survey of the bottom of the bay, it is impossible to select definitely an exact location, and any application that the Board makes before the War Department for modification of its ruling should not be that this is the exact definite surveyed location, without any possible deviation. It should be that this is a general location, subject to slight modification in direction at both ends of the line, after a survey of the bottom of the bay has been made. I am sorry the City Attorney went out.

Supervisor Stanton: Is John O'Toole gone for the afternoon, I wonder? I think he ought to hear this?

Mr. Galloway: For instance, to illustrate that point. We set forth in our report that the location on the Alameda side is contingent upon an agreement with the City of Alameda that owns the property. The location as determined there fits the Alameda Naval base as near as it could be found out what it is. There have been a number of plans prepared for the Naval base. We were given, in confidence, the last one, but that is not necessarily the one that the government would finally build. And we endeavored to avoid it we did avoid it, but, in so avoiding it, we interefere, to a small extent, with the proposed harbor development by the City of Alameda, as presented to us by the officials of that city. Now, dependent upon whether the Naval base or the harbor development of the City of Alameda prevails, you must have the right to move that end north or south a few hundred feet. And when you come over on this side, an intensive study of this location on this side may determine that you would want to move this end of the bridge a little bit one way or the other.

Now, passing from that to another point that was mentioned and brought up, I think by the question of the ownership regarding certain lands on Rincon Hill, that if I were to speak technically regarding the end of the bridge, the end on the other side of the bay, lands on property under the jurisdiction of the City of Alameda, and on this side it lands on property under the jurisdiction of the State of California. Some part of the approach passes over a portion of Rincon Hill, but the major end of this part of the bridge, if you consider a part of the bridge the terminal, if you consider the terminal a part of the bridge, it passes, the major portion, over the streets of the City of San Francisco. We carried it up Tehama street to Seventh, down Seventh to Bryant and along Bryant back again to the other point. The major portion is on the streets of the City. It is true that a certain area will have to be condemned from private parties. I am not an attorney. I do not want to say whether ownership on one particular small parcel of land, or two or three of them, will determine a matter of franchise, but I say that, technically speaking, considering the bridge as distinguished from its terminals, the bridge terminates on State property on this side of the bay and on city property on the other side.

Now, I have one other suggestion to make which may be of interest. Nominally a petition of this type goes before the War Department. The City Attorney may correct me if I am speaking in error. But in conference with Major Schulz of the War Department, and from my own experience in matters of that sort, I think the procedure is this: The War Department will not express an opinion upon a generalized request for anything up and down the bay. They will pass an opinion upon a specific proposition for a bridge from this place to that. Now, they do not want it defined down to the width of an hair, but they do want to have before them a specific statement, that this is a bridge that you want, and they will pass on it and render their opinion.

And if the committee goes to Washington, as has been proposed, I would suggest that it go there with one specific definite proposition and you will get a ruling on it.

Now, one other suggestion and then I will sit down. The matter is of supreme importance, it is the biggest bridge ever proposed, and is of extreme importance to the City of San Francisco. It is not the mere granting, under the ordinary procedure of a permit to bridge, let us say, the San Joaquin river. When a similar proposal of equal importance came before the city of Portland for the bridging of the Columbia river, I do not know regarding the procedure, but I do know this, that at some one's request, and I think it was the city's, that instead of having the matter taken up by the War Department alone, which, of course, had behind it the Navy Department, that a commission was formed in Washington, and I believe the representatives of the navy, of the army and of the Department of Commerce sat on that commission and passed upon the site of the bridge over the Columbia river, and regarding its height and general characteristics. And if I may suggest to the Board this matter is so important and has so many angles by which it can be approached that the Supervisors could, will, request the authorities at Washington, and instead of simply limiting this matter to the army, which has only one point of view, that the whole subject be taken up by a specially formed delegation from the various departments who might be interested. If it were done your committee could then have arguments presented to men representing the navy, to those representing the army, and those representing the Department of Commerce, who would understand the matter of shipping. And in that way you would get the matter clearly debated by a committee of the authorities whose points of view would be wider and more general than if it was merely taken before the army engineers.

Supervisor Schmidt: I was going to say that probably the point brought out by the engineer should be heard by the City Attorney with reference to the beginning of the bridge and its terminal, its landing on State land on one side and on land owned and controlled by Alameda on the other. He brought out the point as to the franchise, whether it would revert to the one who owned the land. The engineer pointed out that the approach at the beginning of the bridge would be on State land and on city land owned by Alameda. I think that is very important for the City Attorney to bring out that point.

Supervisor Marks: I would like to ask Mr. Galloway whether, if this Board were to adopt a resolution favoring the bridge location No. 1, as described in your report, whether the description of that bridge and its location and the general terms which enter into the description are sufficiently exact to warrant the War Department in giving consideration to it at the request of this City. I mean by that, whether any additional data other than what the engineers could themselves be ready to present, be required before the War Department would give us a yes or no upon that bridge location No. 1?

Mr. Galloway: My opinion is that the report, as presented, gives sufficient data so that the War Department can intelligently pass upon that location.

Supervisor Marks: So if the Board of Supervisors were to formally adopt the report, so far as it refers to location No. 1, there is enough in this report without the presentation of more exact plans and specifications to get from the War Department, you would say, a ruling upon our application.

Mr. Galloway: We think that we have presented sufficient information for that purpose. We hope that we have. It might be possible, if I may add, that the War Department, or the authorities, would call for more information upon which it could be given, but I think that that report is sufficient.

Supervisor Byington: I would like to ask Mr. Galloway this question: If he does not also believe that in the resolution approving the plans it should be approving what you call the first location, that we, the Board of Supervisors of San Fraccisco, approve of plan No. 1, that is, location No. 1, and when the engineers go to Washington to stand behind the plan rather than to adopt and approve the entire report of the engineers?

Mr. Galloway: Well, I have not given that any thought, Mr. Supervisor. The Board of Engineers very definitely thinks that No. 1 plan is the best plan for the City to adopt.

Supervisor Byington: For that reason, don't you believe we should approve plan No. 1 and go to Washington behind that plan?

Supervisor Gallagher: I think that they state that in their report.

Supervisor Byington: That is what I understood.

Mr. Galloway: That is what we would like to have done.

Supervisor Gallagher: It is in the report and reads as follows (page 19): "It is suggested that a plan of procedure would be, first, to obtain from the War Department the necessary permission to build the bridge at the location designated as No. 1."

Supervisor Byington: I move, as a substitute for all this, that we do hereby approve location No. 1 and apply for a permit from the government at Washington to build and construct a bridge at that location.

Supervisor Gallagher: I will second that motion if it will clear the situation.

Supervisor Byington: At the suggestion of the City Attorney I will modify it in this way: At some point within said location.

The Chairman: Will you state it over again, Supervisor Byington? It is of such importance.

Supervisor Byington: That we, the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco, approve location No. 1 in the engineers' report and that we request the authorities at Washington to grant the right for the construction of the bridge from some point within said location on the San Francisco side to some point on the Alameda side of the location.

Supervisor Havenner: I would like to ask the Supervisor what course of procedure he would recommend, in the event that the War Department would definitely reject the route of Plan No. 1.

Supervisor Byington: I will say that, in my opinion, the only way to get the authorities at Washington to approve of it is to select definitely Plan No. 1 and have everybody stand behind that. If they reject Plan No. 1, in my opinion, there is no chance in the world of their accepting the plan from Telegraph Hill. But I do not believe that we can ever get anywhere unless we stand definitely behind one plan. We cannot scatter our efforts when we go to Washington.

Supervisor Havenner: I do not know just on what your opinion states, but I have heard it suggested that that would not necessarily be true, that there might be various considerations affecting certain other sites, perhaps in their favor or perhaps not favorable to this one. What I have in mind is, we have gone ahead with this procedure of having the engineers draw up a report, in which they recommend first, second and third choices. Now, we are going back to Washington to try to get the best bridge that we can get. I think it would be well for us to let it be definitely known, in some fashion, that No. 1 is our first choice, and that we desire it to be built. But if you are going to eliminate No. 2 and No. 3, it is entirely conceivable that the committee would come back from Washington empty-handed and would have to ask for instructions to go back on No. 2 or——

Supervisor Byington (interrupting): If the engineers go to Washington standing behind No. 1 and fighting for that, don't you think that they will come back here and tell us exactly where that bridge can be located from their session with the authorities in Washington? If they thoroughly fight that out at Washington, and stand strongly behind Plan No. 1, in my opinion, they will get the views of the authorities at Washington very certainly. Now, I do not think it would be out of place if Engineer O'Shaughnessy advised us as to whether or not he did not think that would be the best course to pursue.

Supervisor Gallagher: Before that is done I want to ask a question of Mr. Galloway: I do not suppose it is in the hands of the Board yet, is it?

The Chairman: The motion has been made; it is in the hands of the Board.

Supervisor Gallagher: I would like, with your permission, Mr. Chairman, to ask a question of Mr. Galloway. They say on page 19, paragraph 3, which I think is the crux of their report as to recommendations, they say as follows: "It is suggested that a plan of procedure would be, first to obtain from the War Department the necessary permission to build the bridge at the location designated as No. 1, and after that to explore the site by an extensive system of borings, by which the nature of the foundation material may be definitely determined." Now, Mr. Galloway, what do you think will be the attitude of the Board of Engineers, by whatever manner constituted, to whom we appeal, on the subject of borings? There have been a great many statements made by some authorities that the Board of Army Engineers will ask for the survey of the foundation of the bay preliminary to their action, and that perhaps we might be met with that statement at once. Then again, it is said that it is possible to build a bridge practically within reasonable cost anywhere in the bay, and that that statement would be made as a sufficient answer. What do you think would be the attitude of the department, or what do you think is the situation relative to having borings or a survey, which is the proper word, I think, before the representatives go, or should they go on the wording, as stated in your first three lines, "To obtain from the War Department the necessary permission to build a bridge at the location designated as No. 1." Do you think borings are important prior to or thereafter?

Mr. Galloway: I will answer that, Mr. Supervisor, by stating what appeared to us to be a logical procedure. The borings, the survey of the bottom of the bay—that is the proper term, survey—is a matter that will cost a considerable amount of money. Tentative estimates have been made of in the neighborhood of a quarter of a million dollars. I could not advise the City, nor any private corporation, to spend that amount of money exploring the site unless we had before that the permit of the War Department to build the bridge on that site. I doubt very much whether any private corporation would spend that money. I do not think it would be advisable for the City to do so. The location is a matter determined by a very complex set of conditions. We settled on the location which we designate No. 1, and think is the best, after balancing a number of factors, pro and con; the subject of traffic, the subject of getting the traffic to the best part of San Francisco, the subject of touching upon one of the headlands, reaching one of the headlands that project into the bay from San Francisco, such as Rincon Hill. The others are Telegraph Hill, Potrero Point and Hunters Point. The subject of shipping on the bay, the restrictions required by the shipping men. There were a large number of factors that we balanced. Those we could determine with a certain amount of exactitude. But when it came to a consideration of what is underneath the bottom of the bay in the way of foundation material, that we did not know. So that it appears to me that the procedure the Board should take, if I may state—and naturally I have some interest and thought on the matter—is to adopt the report as it stands. Then pass a resolution designating the site No. 1 as the one which the Board wishes to submit to the authorities in Washington. If you get permission, if they will modify their present restrictions, and state that they are willing to permit a bridge of the type that we describe: a high-level bridge from site No. 1, it then is in order, through whatever procedure the Board may in its wisdom dictate, either to explore the bay itself or to let some private corporation do it. Then you can spend your money finding out what is in the bottom of the bay, and if the exploration of the bay, the survey, shows that it is, financially and from an engineering standpoint, impossible to build a bridge at that point, then you can turn to some other site, and we have designated others. I merely am, Mr. Supervisor, outlining what appeared to me to be the logical procedure in a matter of this sort. First, adopt our report, if it seems good to you; second, designate site No. 1 as the one for which you will go before the authorities in Washington, and, after you get the permission, then explore the bay and find out whether the bridge is possible or not. Do I answer your question?

Supervisor Gallagher: You do, and I think we ought to, without any unnecessary haste, clear the situation up, and I am going to support whatever motion is found advisable under the circumstances —and I am not clear on it, nor do I desire to be technical on it—any motion that keeps us in accordance with the City Attorney's opinions, out of commitments from which we cannot extricate ourselves afterwards, and any motion which sends our representatives on their way to Washington to lay these facts before the department and secure their permission, I will support. I do not care much in what language it is framed, so long as the language is protective enough to safeguard our rights and keep us within the law as to the future. I do not expect to take the floor again on the subject. I was very glad that Supervisor Bath asked the question that he did of the City Attorney. I was rather surprised at the information contained in the answer. Supervisor Bath's question, I think, clears the cloud, the only cloud, I think, that may have rested upon the report, which is splendid in its simplicity and in its explanation. Those of us who favor Rincon Hill area can afford to support it. There was a fear on the part of some of us, and on the part of some of the citizens, that perhaps, due to commitments made with landholders in the vicinity, that in choosing this site that perhaps we had handed this prize to one concern. I think that is dissipated and I do not think it need worry us any longer. Now, before I take my seat I say that we ought to clarify the language. We have now before us three motions, one by Supervisor Shannon, I believe, that the report be approved, and going on to state that procedure. The second by Mr. Roncovieri, which has in it point and has up to this moment been amended without motion, by the way, which of course I would not support if it left out the attendance at Washington of at least a representative of the Board of Supervisors because I will always hold to this thought, that no matter how many experts we employ and no matter how good their work, the final decision will rest here in the Board. I know that it does so legally, but I want it to do so in practice as well as in legal procedure. One further thought I offer to those who are proposing the motion to carry this matter to Washington, and I think the suggestion made by Mr. Gallagher relative to a composite Board is a splendid suggestion, and gives larger room for a more hopeful view for a decision in our favor, and certainly brings more technical minds to attention on the matter with, as I say, greater hope. We should have going to Washington something declaratory from the City of Alameda in this matter. I would like to see some framework of representation that will carry with it to Washington, expressed in the best way that it can be done, that the people of Alameda, and I hope of Oakland, join us before the War Department or the proper department, in asking that this be granted. It would seem to me to be a serious omission not to consult them, and I would go so far, so important do I think this matter, I would go so far—and I am making these suggestions to Supervisors Shannon and Roncovieri and to the coming Justice of the Supreme Court, if he will listen over there, to Mr. Byington, to this effect: Will you provide a means, in the sending of the delegation to Washington, for either the approval officially, if you want, if that will do, or something from the cities across the bay, as far as we can get that. I say I would even go so far as to be willing, if they are willing, and if they want, to send one or two to accompany our committee. This is of such magnitude that we should not be too economical in properly presenting it. I share the opinion that is expressed in Supervisor Roncovieri's resolution, that the engineers who have prepared this report, in company with our own capable City Engineer, certainly should be on the ground, if they can be backed up, if you please, and not preceding, the direct representatives of the City and County of San Francisco in the shape of the Board of Supervisors. And I would ask some of you gentlemen who have proposed these motions to take into consideration the matter of securing the help and cooperation of Alameda and Oakland on this question.

Supervisor Harrelson: I hope that some Supervisor will move a substitute for the whole, and when he does that that he will include the City Attorney or his representative in the delegation.

Supervisor Gallagher: I meant to say that, too.

Supervisor Havenner: Mr. Chairman, I think that it will probably not be possible to send a commission to Washington, which will include the City Engineer and perhaps the City Attorney and certain members of this Board, before the bond election is held on the 14th of June. Therefore, it seems to me that this discussion has developed so much of importance in the phrasing of the instructions, and the authority that will be given to this commission, that it will be well to appoint a committee of this Board to confer with the City Engineer and the City Attorney during the week and draft, as carefully as possible, the resolution which we will finally adopt, the resolution of authority for this commission. And I would move that such a committee be appointed to act with the City Engineer and the City Attorney during the week, to draft a resolution, to be submitted to us.

Supervisor Hayden: I second that motion.

Supervisor Schmidt: I second that motion.

(Supervisor Havenner's statement read.)

Supervisor Gallagher: I would like to warn you of the result of a week's delay for very many reasons. I wonder if it is not possible, Mr. Havenner, in consonance with your motion, if it is adopted, and I ask this question—for Mr. Galloway, Mr. O'Shaughnessy and Mr. O'Toole and the maker of the motion, if need be, to get together and have the matter cleared up before we adjourn?

Supervisor Havenner: What are the considerations you have with respect to the delay?

Supervisor Gallagher: The considerations I have is that perhaps the minds of the members of the Board who are today I think very nearly agreed on the general policy, might be beclouded by a great many things that may enter in during the week. I assume that many persons will be quite busy attempting to not have this report adopted, and I would like to clean up the job today while I am at it and it does not seem so difficult. That is the way I feel about the thing.

Supervisor Byington: I suggest to Supervisor Havenner that he permit us to pass a motion at the present time approving the report.

Supervisor Havenner: I have no objection to that at all, Superisor, I merely want to make certain, in my own mind, of one fact, would the adoption of a resolution approving the report of the engineers commit us, in any way, to the final granting of any franchise?

City Attorney O'Toole: I do not think it would, Mr. Supervisor, for the reason, in the first place, it is too general to be the designation of any site, and, furthermore, I understand that there are several applications for franchises in each particular area which has been recommended by the engineers, and therefore the approval of the report certaintly could not be taken as a designation of any particular site.

Supervisor Havenner: It would not be even a commitment to the policy of eventually granting a franchise, in the event that this Board should decide on some public manner of constructing the bridge?

City Attorney O'Toole: No, I presume not. All you are doing is figuring as to the location of a bridge and not the matter of construction.

Supervisor Havenner: I withdraw the motion.

Supervisor Byington: Then I move, as a substitute, that the Board of Supervisors approve the report of the engineers.

The Chairman: I understand Supervisor Byington is going to move a substitute for the whole.

Supervisor Shannon: It cannot be done, I am going to rise to a point of order.

Supervisor Byington: I am going to withdraw my present substitute. I move that the Board of Supervisors approve the report of the engineers heretofore filed with this Board.

Supervisor Shannon: I would like to have my original motion read.

Supervisor Schmidt: The one I seconded.

Supervisor Shannon: Then I think you will rule that unnecessary.

(The Clerk reads the motion as follows):

"Supervisor Shannon: I move that the report of the engineers, Messrs. Galloway, Ridgway and Talbot, be adopted."

Supervisor Byington: It is all right to act on Mr. Shannon's motion.

The Chairman: Supervisor Colman asked for a segregation of that.

Supervisor Shannon: I move we act on that portion of my motion.

The Chairman: Call the roll on that portion of it.

Supervisor Harrelson: I desire to read from the proceedings of this Board of February 8, 1927, when this matter was under discussion. I refer to the time when you had introduced, Mr. Chairman, a resolution into this Board, designating the selection of a particular site from Rincon Hill to Seventh and Pine streets, Alameda and it was during the time that that resolution was under discussion that I made this statement: "I asked those questions because I had the idea in mind of offering some sort of an amendment to the proposal that the Supervisor had made. I am in favor of selecting a zone within the limits of which we shall declare our policy of building this bridge. But I am not agreeable to accept those two points which he has described exactly. I had in mind the construction of a bridge, the western terminal of which would be possibly on Rincon Hill, but the Alameda terminal would be at a point south of what we know as the Narrow Gauge Mole, and would cross the estuary at a much higher point, that is farther east than the line that he has described. It probably would cross the estuary at a high level at or near the towers carrying the high tension wires that are at present located on either side of the estuary. And the high level bridge continues across the Bay to its western terminal. I believe the intent of the Supervisor is all right. I was prepared the other day to vote for that declaration of policy, but the more thought I have given to the consideration the more I am convinced that we ought to cover a broader zone than one definite line at this time. I would like to hear some discussion before I offer an amendment, but I have that idea in mind." I read this because at that time I described practically in detail the location which is covered by site No. 1. Therefore I wish to commend the Board of Engineers for its judgment and its wisdom displayed in selecting this site.

Supervisor Deasy: I want to verify the statement that Mr. Harrelson made because he marked it on the map that he had in his desk, where the bridge is going to go.

The Chairman: Call the roll.

Supervisor Stanton: I am going to vote against the commissioner's report. I have read, with some interest, the report of your commission on bridges. And I might state that I have not found a whole lot said in the report that has not already been said before this Board of Supervisors, with the exception of possibly some of the statistics which I think are very valuable. I do not think that there is a thing said in this report that has not been said in this Board of Supervisors, that has not been said before the hearing before Major Schultz in December, 1925, and possibly much more than has been said here. All of the facts contained in the book are now before the officials, the War Department in Washington, who are finally going to decide where a bridge shall be built. They had the facts in 1921, and they have had the facts ever since. And it seems to me that we are taking a step now to possibly stop the building of a bridge for many a day. Now, the statistics that I refer to in the book, some of them, giving the heights of ships' masts, the heights of the smokestacks of the new liners that are being built, 150 feet from the water, ships' masts 200 feet and more high, which all go to clearly show me that there should be no bridge built across where the blue line is that is going to possibly, for all time, block big ships coming through, that is having free passage through to this side of the harbor. The engineers in their report go on to tell you that the volume of the commerce is north of the bridge. I might say that they are very truthful in their statements, and they have given to you just cold turkey, as they find it, but that the business is rapidly growing to the south. In the hearing before Major Schulz you had everybody that was concerned in the building of the bridge and all of the data I maintain, contained there, is in the hands of the War Department at this particular time, awaiting a decision. Now, we are about to adopt a report, asking again for modification, and I venture to say, if they adhere at all to the committee or the commission that will be sent to Washington asking for a modification that, if a hearing is held, that the War Department will authorize that the hearing be held in San Francisco where the bridge is to be built. And I do not think that they are going to hold that hearing because they have never given the decision on the last hearing that they held. And they have been ready possibly for almost a year to hand you down their verdict. Their minds are made up and you might just as well have heard it then as now, for I am going to tell you that, in my opinion, and I believe it will be backed up, and I believe that many more sitting in this hall today, and I feel that a number of the Supervisors cannot help but believe that, if a bridge is built, that you are finally going to build it at Hunter's Point or south of Hunter's Point. If not then, the joke is on the War Department. If not, then the War Department really do not know what they are talking about. And according to the War Department and according to the report of your commission, the business, the commerce, is developing more and more to the south. The growth of your City and everything else is to the south. I could take this report and go down there and read it through from page to page and almost everything contained in it, to my way of thinking, would verify the ruling of the War Department, that no bridge should be built this side of Hunter's Point. Everything that they have given you in there almost in the line of statistics shows the development to the other side of where they are going to build the bridge. I also notice that there is considerable stress laid on the fact that we do not want to block the Oakland harbor. We would keep Oakland harbor open for the free passage of commerce. But we come to our own side of the bay and we practically build a fence across it, shutting out everything this side of Folsom or Bryant street. It seems to me that, if we give as much attention and thought to our own harbor, and to its development and where the future growth has to go, as we are giving consideration to Oakland, we would never stand for a bridge to come in at any such a place. The gentlemen go on here to tell you the size of the steamers that they are building today, running over 1000 feet in length, and they go on to tell you how the steamers, backing out of the piers, go off into the bay half a mile or more at times, and I will tell you the size of the steamers that they have mentioned will go a whole lot more than half a mile, and you are expecting them to maneuver in and around a lot of piers set tight in the middle of your channel. Did you ever stop to take into consideration the thought and attention that the shipping people are giving to the Carquinez bridge, where it is sitting right in the middle of the channel, where the steamers are not bothered by backing in and out of the docks anything near like they would be here, where they simply pass through it, and there is no maneuvering; It does not seem to me that those things can be thoroughly understood by the members of this Board of Supervisors when they seem so unanimous to block the harbor, as the commission tell you about in this report, it being the only port on the coast where the navy has room to maneuver outside of Puget Sound. And still you are going to tell the Navy Department and the War Department they do not know what they are talking about, that the Board of Supervisors of San Francisco know it all, and that we do not particularly care whether we do fence the harbor off, we do not care whether we do build a bridge that the ships cannot pass under. And according to the reading of the report and their own statistics it will only be a short time when every ship almost that comes in the harbor will have two masts too high to pass under the bridge. Your committee's report also shows you that every development at the present time is moving to the south. as clearly as any engineer that took the floor for a bridge ever explained it. And still we are here, almost unanimously recommending that particular site, bringing it into one of the most thickly congested sections of the city. Now let me state, Mr. Chairman, before I sit down, that, if you want a bridge, you are not going to get it the way we are going. I am going to vote against the committees' report, but I am in favor of sending any committee that you may select to Washington, not for the purpose of saying, "Can we build this bridge at Rincon Hill, or can we build this bridge at Potrero Hill"—and much can be said about the bridge at Potrero Hill and at Telegraph Hill. "But if we cannot build this bridge at Rincon Hill where can we build a bridge? How far north will you let us come with a bridge? I will vote for such a motion whereby we can finally get to the place where we will have a bridge across San Francisco Bay. But if you are going to take the stand here and pick one bridge out and go behind it and spend a lot of money and a lot of time, and come back to San Francisco and make a report that you cannot do it, we have already had that from the War Department. And then start in again from another place and find out that you cannot do it, I am willing to vote to send a committee to find out where you can build a bridge. (Applause.)

The Chairman: Mr. Galloway has only one or two words to say in reference to one or two of the statements that Mr. Stanton made.

Supervisor Byington: I just want to say a few words, and I merely want to say this: That the Supervisor that has just spoken took his stand as a boy on Hunter's Point, and there he is going to stand forever. (Applase.) He never——

Supervisor Stanton (interrupting): No, I stood as a boy on Telegraph Hill.

Supervisor Byington: I mean, as to the point of a bridge. And I notice that the applause comes also principally from those who are interested in Hunter's Point.

Supervisor Stanton: Those that clap for you may come from Rincon Hill.

Supervisor Byington: That is all right. If Supervisor Stanton is correct, then the four distinguished engineers, some of the greatest engineers that this country has produced, are wrong, because they have brought in a report here—their faces are turned toward the future—and they are all wrong in this matter if the Supervisor is correct, because they state that a bridge probably can be built there. They are acquainted with the conditions in Washington and they say that they believe, if we go to Washington and ask that a bridge be constructed between these points, permission will be granted. I say, I am willing to follow in the footsteps of skilled engineers, with my face turned toward the front, rather than go way down and remain at Hunter's Point where a bridge never would do the city any good. Let us progress upward toward the Golden Gate and build a bridge that will accommodate thousands of people to every one who would be accommodated down at old Hunter's Point. (Applause.)

The Chairman: Mr. Galloway.

Mr. Galloway: One point regarding the remarks of the Supervisor regarding the question of ships entering the harbor below the line of the bridge that we allowed at No. 1. The matter was taken up with a delegation of the shipping interests in San Francisco and, as far as vertical clearances were concerned, they thought that the shipping world would be accommodated with a height of 150 feet, and that is the limitation that the Board placed upon the bridge. We had two meetings with the shipping interests of the city. But in addition to that, and recognizing the fact that there is the largest drydock on the Pacific Coast at Hunter's Point south of the bridge and away from the sea, and recognizing also the fact, or the possibility rather, that there will be at least four large drydocks in the Naval Base at Alameda, the Board provided that a movable span be placed in the bridge of sufficient width so that any ship at present existing, or to be built, can pass through to the lower bay.

Supervisor Stanton: May I say another word? I meant to touch on that removable span. I imagine that would be a drawbridge, and I do not know what would happen to a drawbridge across San Francisco Bay. I do not know what would happen to the traffic. Any of you that have ever gone across the creek over here, particularly in the rush hours, when a steamer goes through there and they have got to open that drawbridge, which is a very small one, why, you are blocked clear up to the middle of the town. And that is what the gentlemen are proposing as a remedy. I say that it would be the biggest farcical affair that San Francisco would ever have put on to date.

Supervisor Byington: I would like to ask Mr. Galloway this question: If it is probable that there is more than one ship in a thousand with a mast over 150 feet high?

Supervisor Stanton: That all depends on what you mean.

Supervisor Byington: I will ask you that, you know of there being more than one ship in a thousand that has a mast over 150 feet high coming into this harbor?

Supervisor Stanton: At the present time there are not many ships, but the tendency of the time is to not to build small ships, but they will all be that in a little while. When I pulled a boat in San Francisco Bay, a ship of 5,000 tons, a ship of 3,000 tons was a mighty big ship, but you see very few 3,000-ton ships today. And the tendency is for them all to go higher and higher. There are a number of steamers in here that are mentioned in here—I was just trying to find it, Mr. Galloway can tell you or Chief Engineer O'Shaughnessy—where the smoke stacks are 150 feet high.

Supervisor Byington: But I understand that is very rare.

Supervisor Stanton: But you are going to bar that line of ships from your harbor.

Supervisor Byington: Oh, no, they can go through that drawbridge.

Supervisor Stanton: They could even do differently than that, they could stay out of here, they could go some other place.

Mr. Galloway: The answer to the question, Mr. Byington, is found in a report made by Mr. Polhemus, who was port manager of the port of Portland, and data was collected there regarding the heights of masts on ships for the purpose of debating the same subject regarding a bridge over the Columbia River. From the testimony which is printed at considerable length in the report by Mr. Polhemus, and which Mr. O'Shaughnessy furnished the Board, I would say, in my judgment, that not one ship to five thousand has masts that could not pass under this bridge. It is only in rare exceptional cases that the largest ships would ever want to go into the lower bay, according to the opinion of the shipping men, and that is to reach the drydock, and the interruption to traffic over the bridge would be possibly once in five years or something of that sort. And the general testimony of ship builders and ship owners throughout the world—and this data was gathered by Mr. Polhemus from all over the world, Great Britain, France, Italy, Holland and America—that the entire tendency at the present time is for lower ship masts instead of larger ones, and that has come about first, by the introduction of steam as a means of propulsion and, second, by the use of Diesel engines which do not need high masts, so that the entire tendency at the present time is toward lower masts and larger ships.

Supervisor Shannon: The data is on page 37 of the report.

The Chairman: Call the roll.

Supervisor Roncovieri: I proposed an amendment to it and I would like to hear that question read once more.

The Chairman: You are voting on Supervisor Shannon's original motion.

Supervisor Havenner: Read it as it is, please.

The Clerk: The motion now pending by Supervisor Shannon, seconded by Supervisor Schmidt, is "I move that the report of the engineers, Messrs. Galloway, Ridgway and Talbot, be adopted."

The Chairman: Call the roll.

(Roll call.)

Supervisor Badaracco: Aye.
Supervisor Bath: Aye.
Supervisor Byington: Aye.
Supervisor Colman: Aye.
Supervisor Deasy: Aye.
Supervisor Gallagher: Aye.
Supervisor Harrelson: Aye.
Supervisor Havenner: Aye.
Supervisor Hayden: Aye.
Supervisor Kent: Aye.
Supervisor Marks: Aye.
Supervisor McSheehy: Aye.
Supervisor Powers: Aye.
Supervisor Roncovieri: Aye.
Supervisor Schmidt: Aye.
Supervisor Shannon: Aye.
Supervisor Stanton: No.
Supervisor Todd: Aye.
The Clerk: 17 "ayes"; 1 "no."
The Chairman: Carried.

Supervisor Shannon: I should judge that in your resolution your desire is to have this City represented at Washington by Messrs. Galloway, Ridgway and Talbot.

Supervisor Roncovieri: By the Board of Engineers, yes, sir.

Supervisor Shannon: And I would like to make this——

Supervisor Hayden: And Chief Engineer O'Shaughnessy, Supervisor Roncovieri and the City Attorney.

Supervisor Shannon: I would like to make this suggestion to you so as to clear up the matter. If you will go to line 6 of your second "resolved", line 6, right after the word "report", almost at the end of line 6, I suggest to you that we strike out "and the recommendations of the above-named engineers be and they are hereby approved and adopted by this Board, and ordered sent to the Board of Army Engineers at Washington, D. C., for their consideration."

Supervisor Roncovieri: I have done that already.

Supervisor Shannon: And let your "resolved" be incorporated in my motion reading as follows: "And that Engineers Robert Ridgway, Arthur N. Talbot, John D. Galloway and M. M. O'Shaughnessy, and City Attorney John J. O'Toole are hereby respectfully requested to represent the Board of Supervisors of this City and County before the Board of Army Engineers at Washington in the presentation of all the facts and figures, and all of the arguments in connection with the report, and that the engineers above named be conferred with by the Finance Committee regarding compensation for their services at Washington."

Supervisor Roncovieri: I accept it. If you would also accept this that was brought out here: That the Committee of this Board should be also named.

Supervisor Shannon: If you will permit the Clerk now to read the the second part of my motion, this is to follow.

Supervisor Roncovieri: That is right. I have the same thing in mind.

The Clerk (reading): "That the Chairman of the Finance Committee be authorized to appoint a committee of three members of this Board to go to Washington to obtain the sanction of the United States Government to the report, and that the Chairman of the Finance Committee be a member of that committee of three."

Supervisor Shannon: The motion then will follow that "Engineers Robert Ridgway, Arthur N. Talbot, John D. Galloway, M. M. O'Shaughnessy and City Attorney John J. O'Toole are hereby respectfully requested to represent the Board of Supervisors of this City and County before the Board of Army Engineers in Washington in the presentation of all the facts and figures and all of the arguments in connection with the report and that the engineers above named be conferred with by the Finance Committee regarding compensation for their services at Washington."

Supervisor Roncovieri: That is exactly as I wish it. I had made the same notation and changes.

The Chairman: That last section you just read be added to the motion?

Supervisor Shannon: Yes.

Supervisor Gallagher: I desire some place—I am a bit confused as to the proper place—to insert the words "Mayor of San Francisco", if I can get a second to that.

Supervisor Hayden: I will second that.

Supervisor Gallagher: I have not a copy of that resolution in my hand.

Supervisor Roncovieri: Here.

Supervisor Gallagher: What is your motion being tacked onto, Supervisor Shannon's? Is that not correct?

Supervisor Shannon: How?

Supervisor Gallagher: As I understand it, the motion of Supervisor Roncovieri is now being tacked onto the latter end of your motion.

Supervisor Shannon: Correct.

Supervisor Gallagher: And I desire to insert in the first line of the last paragraph, where it says "further resolved that Engineers Robert Ridgway" and so on, Mayor James Rolph, Jr., and then it goes on to state "and Engineers Robert Ridgway and the City Attorney" and so on, and I desire to insert that at that point. And I desire to also amend the motion for another insertion: "That said committee be authorized to secure the complete cooperation of the East Bay Cities to the work of this committee, or to the mission of this committee." Now, if I get a second to that, I will explain it. Supervisor Roncovieri has no objection to the insertion of the Mayor. Have you, Supervisor Shannon?

Supervisor Shannon: No.

Supervisor Gallagher: Will that be accepted?

The Chairman: Call the roll.

Supervisor Badaracco: Do I understand the motion is to appoint a committee consisting of four engineers, the City Attorney and three members of the Board of Supervisors, making a committee of eight?

The Chairman: And the Mayor.

Supervisor Badaracco: I would like the motion separated. I favor voting for the engineers being appointed but, however, I am not in favor of a committee of Supervisors being appointed.

Supervisor Shannon: How is the City going to be represented?

Supervisor Badaracco: It makes no difference.

Supervisor Shannon: I would like to make a slight change.

Supervisor Gallagher: May I finish my changes? As I understand it, the Mayor's name has been included. And would you, Supervisor Shannon, at your own place—I do not desire to do this inserting, but I am very earnest in trying to secure the complete cooperation of our sister cities on the East Bay.

Supervisor Shannon: Don't you think that we can pass that separately?

Supervisor Gallagher: That is quite all right with me.

Supervisor Shannon: I would like to recommend just a little change in the resolution.

The Chairman: Will you take it upon yourself to make it?

Supervisor Shannon: I will tell you what the change is. In Mr. Roncovieri's original resolution, of course, he intended this evidently as an original resolution, and in it he made mention of the fact that these engineers are respectfully requested to represent the Board of Supervisors. Now, with the motion to have three members of the Board of Supervisors represent the City, which is the proper way to do, then I would like to change that part of Mr. Roncovieri's motion to this effect: "That Engineers Robert Ridgway, Arthur N. Talbot, John D. Galloway and M. M. O'Shaughnessy, and City Attorney John J. O'Toole and Mayor James Rolph, Jr., are hereby respectfully requested to cooperate with a committee from the Board of Supervisors." That is right at the commencement of the third line, and striking out "requested to" and adding "respectfully requested to cooperate with the committee from the Board of Supervisors." Then the actual motion will read, "that the Chairman of the Finance Committee be authorized to appoint a committee of three members of this Board to go to Washington to obtain the sanction of the United States Government to the report and that the Chairman of the Finance Committee be a member of that committee of three." Then follows the portion just read.

The Clerk: Will you read that again?

Supervisor Shannon: "That Engineers Robert Ridgway, Arthur N. Talbot, John D. Galloway and M. M. O'Shaughnessy and City Attorney John J. O'Toole and Mayor James Rolph, Jr., are hereby respectfully requested to cooperate with a committee from the Board of Supervisors of this City and County, before the Board of Army Engineers in Washington, in the presentation of all the facts and figures and arguments in connection with the report, and that the engineers above named be conferred with by the Finance Committee regarding compensation for their services at Washington." I move the adoption.

Supervisor Schmidt: Second the motion.

Supervisor Stanton: I have no objection, as I stated, to going to Washington, but are we going to have another resolution as to just what they will stand for, or are they going back and ask for one project and then come back to San Francisco if they do not get it?

Supervisor Byington: I am going to offer a substitute, that is, following the suggestion made by Mr. Galloway, that we first approve the report. Now, I am going to offer this as a substitute: "Resolved, that the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco hereby makes application to the War Department of the United States to build a bridge at the location designated as No. 1 in the report of the engineers adopted and approved May 23, 1927, by the above-named Board of Supervisors."

Supervisor Schmidt: What is No. 1? The committee has outlined three bridges. I think you are the baby of Rincon Hill, I think we ought to adopt the three resolutions, adopt the report and not designate one spot.

Supervisor Byington: I did not either come from Rincon Hill or way out——

Supervisor Havenner (interrupting): Are you proposing this as a substitute for Supervisor Shannon's resolution?

Supervisor Byington: I merely want to see it go there.

Supervisor Havenner: I am in favor of having a definite expression myself, but we ought to adopt his resolution first.

Supervisor Badaracco: I would like to hear the motion read.

Supervisor Byington: This is to be voted on separately. I want this voted upon and then vote upon the matter of going to Washington.

The Chairman: As I understand it, you offer this as an amendment to the motion?

Supervisor Byington: I offer it as an amendment.

The Chairman: To the motion made by Supervisor Shannon. I am sorry, but if this is an amendment to Supervisor Shannon's motion—you are not offering that as an amendment?

Supervisor Byington: I consider it as an amendment, first that we vote upon the proposed location of that particular plan we recommend, and then after that vote upon the proposition of sending this delegation to Washington.

The Chairman: We have already adopted a part of it. Supervisor Shannon's motion is before this body. I cannot place both motions at one time.

Supervisor Byington: You would have to present the amendment first and then Supervisor Shannon's would follow

The Chairman: I hate to rule on this, but I cannot see that this has any relationship whatsoever to the motion made by Supervisor Shannon. I am willing to take it up right afterwards. Supervisor Shannon's motion has the right of way here. I do not like to be arbitrary with you at all.

Supervisor Schmidt: I understood that Supervisor Havenner was going to draft a policy, to be followed after the adoption of both of these amendments. We will not have any policy if we adopt Supervisor Byington's amendment.

The Chairman: If I am forced to a ruling, and I will have to rule if I am forced to it——

Supervisor Byington (interrupting): I thought that that was the original argument, that first we vote upon the approval of the report and then we vote upon recommending to Washington a particular site, and then determine who the committee should consist of, I will state that, personally, I am opposed to a committee consisting of nine or ten people going to Washington, at the expense of this City and County, I am very strongly opposed to it. I think it is an outrage to send the Mayor and three members of the Board of Supervisors and four engineers to Washington at the expense of this City when they are not necessary. I, on the contrary, believe that we ought to take steps to request the War Department and the Navy Department, and some other Washington department to come here to San Francisco and sit down with us, and I think we could get that done and save this enormous expense to this City. I think that would meet with the approval of the engineers, to request of Washington that they send a representative of the War Department, a representative of the Navy Department and a representative of the other departments suggested by Mr. Galloway out here to sit down with our engineers and with the Mayor and with the Board of Supervisors, and have it determined here, but to send nine or ten men, at the expense of this City, to Washington for an unlimited time, it should not be done. I would say, even so far as the Mayor is concerned, the Mayor of this City has no time to go to Washington and spend a month and that is what I favor and I would offer that as a substitute, if this motion does not go first, that we request the War Department and the Navy Department to come to San Francisco and sit down here with the engineers on this project.

Supervisor Gallagher: Is Mr. Byington expressing his own opinion or the opinion of the Mayor on the subject of whether the Mayor can go to Washington?

Supervisor Byington: It must be my own opinion because I have not consulted with the Mayor on that or any other thing. But I do not believe that the Mayor should go to Washington for this purpose, and I do not believe that three members of the Board of Supervisors should go.

Supervisor Gallagher: How much would it cost?

Supervisor Byington: You have ten men, it will cost too much and it is entirely unnecessary.

Supervisor Badaracco: I would like to have the motion read because I, too, am opposed to three members of the Board of Supervisors and the Mayor. I am in favor of the four engineers waiting on the War Department, but I am opposed to the Mayor or the Supervisors.

Supervisor Shannon: Answering Mr. Byington, I think that his suggestion is most ridiculous, to think that the War Department will come to us. We have a matter to present to them, and their office is in San Francisco, and the place for us to get all interested parties in one place at one time is in Washington. They might send a representative to San Francisco. They might have their local representative, who is located here all the time, have the hearing and would be a repetition of what we have had in the past. But if we are going to get this very important matter settled, a committee must go to Washington. That committee should consist of representatives of this City, and the representatives of this City are the members of the Board of Supervisors. The gentlemen who have compiled this report are in a better position than anybody else to present their argument to the representatives of the Army and Navy. The Board of Supervisors, the representatives of the Board of Supervisors, are men who have sat through all of the hearings, and are familiar with everything that was presented, and the City Attorney knows the legal status. Our City Engineer also knows everything about the report of the engineers and everything—will you kindly have the Supervisor seated, Mr. Chairman?

Supervisor Byington: I was going to ask a question.

Supervisor Shannon: You do not need to ask questions in the middle of a man's line of thought. But I do think that it is absolutely necessary that this full committee go. We have expended $30,000 in getting this report, and one-third of that sum in getting a definite answer from Washington for the benefit of the entire bay district is like a drop in the bucket. When men talk about saving money in a matter of this kind I think it would be well if they devoted their time to an endeavor to save money along other lines. And as far as the Supervisor who is objecting to the Supervisors going, he is the one man on the Board who is always looking to be sent to all committee meetings in any part of the country.

Supervisor Byington: I rise to a question of personal privilege. I have been referred to by the gentleman who just sat down as one who has always aimed to be sent to committee——

Supervisor Shannon: No, I am not referring to you at all. You were bolstered up by another member of the Board.

Supervisor Byington: I am going to say that I never went any place at an expense of ten cents.

Supervisor Badaracco: I suggest that Supervisor Shannon look up the number of resolutions he has introduced since he has been on the Board, whereby committees have been appointed on junketing trips.

Supervisor Powers: I have the record of February 10 in front of me, where we had nine votes for a zone from Rincon Hill to Sixteenth street. If we had had one more vote on the 10th day of February of this year we would not have had to employ these engineers at all. The committee would have been back to Washington and back here with their report, with only one more vote on the 10th day of February.

Supervisor Stanton: And yes, Charlie, but the Southern Pacific would have had the franchise.

The Chairman: That is very unfair, Supervisor Stanton, and I wish you would not interrupt. I will ask you, if you have a point of order, to state it, but you will not interrupt the speaker.

Supervisor Powers: I have the roll call on February 10 here.

"Supervisor Badaracco: No.
"Supervisor Bath: Absent.
"Supervisor Byington: Aye.
"Supervisor Colman: Aye.
"Supervisor Deasy: Aye.
"Supervisor Gallagher: No.
"Supervisor Harrelson: Aye.
"Supervisor Havenner: No.
"Supervisor Hayden: Aye.
"Supervisor Kent: Aye.
"Supervisor Marks: Aye.
"Supervisor McSheehy: Aye.
"Supervisor Powers: Aye.
"Supervisor Roncovieri: No.
"Supervisor Schmidt: No.
"Supervisor Shannon: No.
"Supervisor Stanton: No.
"Supervisor Todd: No."

We would have saved that $25,000 with one more vote, and we would have had the report back here three months ago.

Supervisor Schmidt: At that time I am glad I did not vote for it, or it surely would have been christened the Southern Pacific bridge.

Supervisor Byington: I would like to propound a question: Today I had the pleasure of listening to a speech upon Boulder Dam, and I would like to know if the Supervisor is not aware of the fact that both Secretary Hoover and Secretary Work came all the way out here to view the engineering proposition of Boulder Dam?

Supervisor Shannon: And they will come out here to view this bridge when it is completed.

Supervisor Byington: So there is not anything nonsensical about asking them to come.

Supervisor Harrelson: What are we voting on now, sending this committee to Washington?

The Chairman: Yes.

Supervisor Harrelson: I would like to ask from the engineers if they consider that they are sufficiently and properly prepared to make the presentation to the Washington authorities. I mean by that are their plans prepared in sufficient detail to make the proper presentation?

Supervisor Shannon: I would like to hear Chief O'Shaughnessy on that.

Supervisor Powers: I would like to hear from Chief O'Shaughnessy.

Chief Engineer O'Shaughnessy: I think, with a very moderate work in preparing diagrams to be made of the proposed bridge location, it will be adequate for a presentation to the War Department. But some work will have to be done and it can be done in the next three or four weeks.

Supervisor Roncovieri: Does that mean that there will be a delay of three or four weeks before this committee can proceed to Washington?

Chief Engineer O'Shaughnessy: Yes.

Supervisor Stanton: I do not agree with Supervisor Byington. I won't say that I do not agree with the three Supervisors, a committee of three Supervisors who are right from the Board, representing the City, with the Chief Engineer, who should represent the engineering end of it, and it seems to me that that should be enough. I do not think that you have to take a whole army of engineers to go back there, because, after all, it is going to be sort of up to the Supervisors who go to hypnotize the Army and Navy so they will admit they are all wrong. The City Attorney will go along with you to give you the legal points, but why pack along a whole regiment of engineers? You are not going to construct a bridge there. They are merely going to place the facts before them and Mr. Galloway said he thought there was sufficient in the book here to present, and they have many more books like that, and they have all of those facts, and it is just a matter of going back there and having that persuasive power of showing them where they are wrong and convincing them. So take back with you a lot of nice, easy-spoken, convincing Supervisors and possibly you will get far along with the Engineer and the City Attorney. I would say that it would be a good trip.

Supervisor Gallagher: If there is any precedent needed, I remember we were at Washington when Secretary Fisher of the Department of the Interior wanted to revoke the Garfield permit on Hetch Hetchy, and while I was one of the delegation I happened to be in the East at the time and was asked to come over from Philadelphia, or wherever we were meeting. I remember the Mayor was there and I think that when we appeared before the Secretary we were backed up by something like eight or nine of a delegation, including Senator Phelan, I think John R. Freeman, and yes, I think we had seven or eight in our delegation. We thought it was important enough to preserve that permit to San Francisco. When we went back to get the decree for the World's Fair, I think a carload of people went back.

Supervisor Byington: At the expense of the City?

Supervisor Gallagher: A good many of them, yes. I cannot quite get your line of action, Supervisor. This is the biggest project, including the World's Fair. It is not bigger than Hetch Hetchy, but one of the biggest.

Supervisor Byington: I do not believe that the three Supervisors will add very much to it.

Supervisor Gallagher: The three Supervisors, it is true, may not add much to the presentation, but they do this, at least: They form the background or the foreground for these men, and they sit there as the representatives of seven or eight hundred thousand people or more.

Supervisor Marks: And may I answer that, that they are a group from the very body who have the final say on the granting of the franchise.

Supervisor Gallagher: Certainly. And here is one of the reasons why I would send them: When they return, if the verdict is not in our favor, instead of having one of the Supervisors who has been there all the time tell us just what happened, we have the opinion of three or four men. Now, it is not right, Mr. Supervisor, to bring to yourself the glorious applause that comes from an attempt to save money, when you are labeled as one of the wasters on the Board, with myself and a few others, by the way. It is not advisable to do that and overlook the fact that Washington must be impressed, if we can, with the fact that the people want this. That is the background I would like to see, and that is why I am going to introduce the subject of the East Bay cities, and I do not know what this delegation will cost. I would estimate it would be five to ten thousand dollars.

Supervisor Hayden: No, $25,000.

Supervisor Gallagher: Except the engineers want large fees, and Mr. Ridgway has agreed to represent us for nothing, and I am sure that the other two engineers will be very moderate. And even if it were $25,000, and I am not very loose on the subject of the amounts, I say, very frankly, that it is a very important project and I think we are quarreling over something that is very small, considering the big project we have in view.

The Chairman: Is there any other Supervisor that wishes to speak on this? Supervisor Byington spoke three or four times.

Supervisor Schmidt: What about that ten-minute rule?

Supervisor Byington: I want to ask Supervisor Gallagher if he does not think that it would be better if we sent back the engineers. We have two Senators there representing the State of California, and a number of Congressmen, and a man like Senator Phelan, with his experience, don't you think that that would carry more weight than sending back three members of the Board of Supervisors?

Supervisor Gallagher: I won't say but what it would have its weight, but I certainly would not select Senator Phelan in preference to the direct representatives of the people. I would like to have him go with them.

The Chairman: Call the roll.

Supervisor Badaracco: I wish to be recorded as voting "aye" for the four engineers and the City Attorney, and I want to be recorded as voting "no" against the three Supervisors and the Mayor.

Supervisor Stanton: Can I explain my vote now?

The Chairman: Yes.

Supervisor Stanton: I am going to vote for whomever you want to send, not believing that they are going to accomplish anything, but I simply want to see if we cannot force some sort of a ruling out, if we cannot get the Board of Supervisors to ask somebody there to tell us where we can get a bridge. We could get it without expending a dime, simply by sending a telegram, but if we cannot get it in any other way, and if we have to send somebody there to get it, I am ready to vote for whomever you want to send to get the ruling.

Supervisor Marks: If this motion is carried, would such a committee have the power, in the event that the War Department did not look with favor upon any one of these three different projects, to then get from the War Department the final ruling as to where the bridge can be located?

Supervisor Havenner: I propose, as soon as this is disposed of, to renew my former motion, that the special committee of this Board be appointed to confer with the City Attorney and the City Engineer, during the coming week, and draft a resolution of authority and instruction for the commission that will be sent to Washington.

Supervisor Marks: Defining the scope of the committee's powers?

Supervisor Havenner: Yes.

Supervisor Badaracco: I wish to have the motion separated. I wish to be recorded as voting "no" on the three Supervisors and the Mayor.

The Chairman: Separate the motion. Every Supervisor has that right. A separation of the motion has been asked by Supervisor Badaracco. Call the roll on the separation.

The Clerk: How are you going to separate it?

The Chairman: First on the engineers. Is there any objection to the engineers? Is there any objection to the City Attorney? Is there any objection to the Mayor?

Supervisor Badaracco: Yes.

The Chairman: Call the roll on the Mayor.

Supervisor Byington: I suggest that we take the Mayor and the Supervisors.

The Chairman: You have asked for a separation. Call the roll on the Mayor. The other part has been passed.

Supervisor Havenner: I desire to renew my motion.

The Clerk: What has become of the original motion?

Supervisor Shannon: Call the roll on the original motion.

(Roll call.)

Supervisor Badaracco:——

Supervisor Badaracco (interrupting): I would like to have you explain to me how you are going to call the roll on the original motion?

Supervisor Stanton: I do not get this.

Supervisor Gallagher: You vote "no" on items in the budget, but you do not vote "no" on the budget, do you?

The Chairman: For the sake of the record.

Supervisor Stanton: I do not see any other way unless you put three motions and it carries distinctively, and it seems to me that it is passed. Why do you have to put them all together again?

Supervisor Shannon: There has been no action on my motion. My motion is that the Chairman of the Finance Committee appoint a committee of three to go to Washington, and also that the engineers and the City Attorney and City Engineer accompany the Board of Supervisors' committee. Now, some members of the Board thought that the Mayor should not go, others thought that the members of the Board of Supervisors should not go, and they had their opportunity to express their opinion on these several matters. Now, we are going to vote to see whether the committee is going, that is what we are voting on now.

Supervisor Badaracco: It appears to me that the majority members of the Board are trying to force Supervisor Byington and myself to reverse ourselves by combining the motions. The motions have been separated.

The Chairman: You have had considerable parliamentary experience and you know this is the usual procedure.

Supervisor Badaracco: I am surprised at your ruling.

The Chairman: I will rule that way. You have a demonstration with the budget year in and year out.

Supervisor Byington: Suppose there is a motion made here that you send Mr. Brown and Mr. Jones to Washington and you segregate them and the matter in regard to Brown is carried and the matter in regard to Jones is carried. There is no necessity of combining them.

The Chairman: You have a budget and you will be asked to vote on it some time this week, and there will be items in that budget which you will not agree to, but you will vote for the budget as a whole.

Supervisor Byington: The cases are not similar at all.

The Chairman: They are, in my opinion. You are asking me for a ruling and I am giving it to you.

Supervisor Stanton: I think you are a little in error, and this particular matter does not make any difference to me, but I would not want to get up here at some future time, and want to be forced in the position and ask for the separation of a motion. The idea of the separation of the motion is to give you a chance to vote on the parts of it that you want to. Now, I take it for granted that Supervisor Byington and Supervisor Badaracco want to send a committee to Washington, but they do not agree to the large committee. They believe that they have a right to vote for those that they want to send. Now, you are going to force them into a position that they will have either to vote to send those that they do not want to send, or you are going to make them vote against the entire proposition. Now, to me it makes no difference as to just what you do to the gentlemen at this particular time, but I might have to ask for the same separation of a motion, and I will be forced, at the final, to vote whether I want to or not. I think the idea of the separation of the motion is to give a man a chance to express himself in any particular part of it and not jam him into it. The matter of a budget is entirely different. You go through many items and the law says that you must finally adopt the budget. It is an entirely different proposition.

The Chairman: I think that you can explain your vote.

Supervisor Schmidt: I do not know what the argument is about. The Chair has already ruled. Now, they will either have to vote to sustain the Chair.

The Chairman (interrupting): Call the roll and I would suggest that Supervisor Badaracco and Supervisor Byington can explain their votes.

Supervisor Badaracco: I will make my position clear: I am in favor of sending a committee on to Washington, but, however, I am not in favor of chartering a special train, and I am in favor of sending the four engineers and the City Attorney, but, however, I am opposed to the three Supervisors and the Mayor and, therefore, I am going to vote "No" on the original motion.

Supervisor Byington: If the matter of sending the Supervisors is ever brought into court I think it will be held illegal.

(Roll call.)

Supervisor Badaracco: No.
Supervisor Bath: Aye.
Supervisor Byington: No.

* * * * *

Supervisor Havenner: Mr. Chairman, I believe I made this motion before: I would like to move that a special committee of this Board be appointed to confer with the City Attorney and the City Engineer and report back to this Board, at the next meeting, recommendations in definition of the duties and authority to be conferred upon the commission that will be sent to Washington.

Supervisor Hayden: I second that.

The Chairman: Will you set the number and by whom appointed?

Supervisor Havenner: By the Chairman, I would say, and the committee of three.

Supervisor Hayden: I second that.

The Chairman: You have heard the motion made by Supervisor Havenner and seconded by Supervisor Hayden. Any objection? So ordered.

Supervisor Gallagher: I move you, Mr. Chairman, that the Chairman of the Bridge Committee, in conjunction with his Honor the Mayor, take such steps as to them seems proper to secure cooperation, complete cooperation, of the East Bay Cities to the report of the special board of engineers submitted to this Board and which has been adopted.

Supervisor Schmidt: Second that motion.

The Chairman: You have heard the motion made by Supervisor Gallagher in reference to the cooperation of the East Bay. Are you ready for the question? Any objection? So ordered.

Supervisor Shannon: There are a number of resolutions being carried on the calendar. The first one was presented by yourself covering the general area, one presented by Mr. Havenner regarding a bridge district, one presented by myself regarding Mission Rock. And I think that, in view of the report of the engineers, that we should drop these from the calendar and it will clear the calendar of three or four pages of matter, and if there is no objection from any member of the Board I will so move.

Supervisor Marks: I object to that. I have a motion on page 5, which was made by me on March 7, asking that the City Attorney prepare, at his best convenience, the necessary form of submission to the people of the issue of whether the proposed bridge should be publicly built or privately built. Now, of course, that does not commit the Board to either method of financing. It calls upon the City Attorney to prepare the necessary resolutions or legislation, so that that issue might be submitted to the people. I would not want that to be dropped, and I think that ought to remain.

Supervisor Shannon: With the exception, I move that the others be dropped.

The Chairman: Any objection to the motion made with that exception? No objection, so ordered.

The Clerk: On page 5, application of Bay Cities Bridge Corporation for a franchise for a toll bridge between San Francisco and Alameda.

Supervisor Shannon: I move that further consideration of the application of the Bay Cities Bridge Corporation for a franchise for a toll bridge between San Francisco and Alameda be continued until Monday, July 25, at 2 p. m.

Supervisor Schmidt: I will second that motion.

Supervisor Shannon: I make the motion, Mr. Chairman, for a continuance for a sixty-day period, due to the fact that Mr. O'Shaughnessy stated that it will take three or four weeks to get the matters in shape for a proper presentation at Washington, and I should judge that another three weeks will be consumed in the trip to and from Washington, and in the presentation of matters there, so I think we are fairly safe in setting July 25 as the date.

The Chairman: Is there any objection? No objection.

SPECIAL ORDERS—2 P. M.

Bridge Hearings.

Thereupon, the following matters were taken up:

Applications for Franchises to Construct Bridges Across San Francisco Bay.

Application of Bay Cities Bridge Corporation for a franchise for a toll bridge between San Francisco and Alameda.

Proposed rail and highway crossing for San Francisco Bay from the foot of Sixteenth street, San Francisco, to the foot of Pacific avenue, Alameda.

Beginning at the intersection of the center line of Sixteenth street with the center line of Third (Kentucky) street, in the City and County of San Francisco, and extending thence easterly along the center line of Sixteenth street to the waterfront line; thence easterly along a straight line to a point on the center line of Pacific avenue, in the City of Alameda, County of Alameda, which point is one hundred feet westerly from the intersection of said center line of Pacific avenue with the center line of Bryant street.

That the length of said bridge is 27,750 feet and that the width of the roadway on said bridge is 38 feet.

Bill No. ——, Ordinance No. —— (New Series), as follows:

Establishing set-back lines along portions of Ralston street.

Be it ordained by the People of the City and County of San Francisco as follows:

Section 1. It is hereby recited that on the 25th day of April, 1927, the Board of Supervisors adopted Resolution of Intention No. 132 to establish set-back lines along Ralston street, and fixed the 23d day of May, 1927, at 2 o'clock p. m., at the chambers of the Board of Supervisors, as the time and place for hearing objections thereto; that thereafter and more than ten days prior to said hearing the said resolution was published and notices of the passage of said resolution were posted along the line of said street, in time, form and manner required by Ordinance No. 5636 (New Series); that said hearing was held at Statement by Supervisor Havenner re Reapportionment Bill.

The following matter, laid over from last week, was taken up and, on motion, again laid over one week:

Mr. Chairman, the Legislative Reapportionment Bill, which was adopted by the people at the last general election, and for which the necessary legislation to make it effective was adopted at the recent session of the Legislature is to be submitted to referendum. The representatives of San Francisco in the State Legislature announced in voting for the necessary bill to put this reapportionment act into effect, that they intended at the same time to support the referendum when it came up. The new reapportionment law changes the present system of representation by population in both the Senate and the Assembly, and as a result of that change San Francisco's quota of the State Senators would be reduced by six. At present we have seven representatives in the State Senate; we would, under the provisions of the new law, have but one, and that would be true similarly in Los Angeles and other large cities of the State. We would lose also one Assemblyman in San Francisco and I think there is practically unanimous sentiment among the members of the State delegation, and I think the sentiment is practically unanimous throughout the State, that the present law should be repealed by referendum. I think the Board of Supervisors should declare its intention to support the proposed referendum and to aid it in every way that it can and I so move.

Motion seconded by Supervisor Schmidt.

(b) That the counties of Santa Cruz, San Mateo and San Francisco are hereby named as the counties interested in and which will be benefited by such highway construction.

Privilege of the Floor.

Acting Chief of Police Quinn was granted the privilege of the floor and addressed the Board. He called attention to Item No. 692, and declared that there was at the present time employed 129 corporals at $2,580 each per year instead of 128, and that the item should be corrected to read 129 corporals to conform to our present set-up of the department. He also called attention to Item No. 703, contractual serivce, $21,500. Last year, he declared, this item was $26,500, and in this year's Budget this is reduced about $5,000. He asked that $5,603 be added to Item 703 in order to take care of the necessary requirements of the department. He declared, moreover, that the present set-up in the Budget provides for an increase of only 41 police officers additional instead of 50 additional police which the Finance Committee agreed to give the department this year.

Motion.

Supervisor Shannon moved that the Finance Committee recheck the items mentioned by Captain Quinn and report back this evening.

There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Opinion of City Attorney.

The City Attorney appeared and presented the following communication, which was read by the Clerk:

May 25, 1927.

Subject: Taxation for School Building Purposes—Inclusion of Necessary Amount in Budget.

Dears Sirs:

I am in receipt of your request that I forthwith advise you as to the necessity of your Board including in its annual Budget such amounts as the Board of Education may demand for school building purposes, as well as including in your annual tax levy a tax sufficient to produce the amount.

Opinion.

The chief duty which arises in approaching this question is the apparent conflict between the provisions of the Charter and the provisions of the State law. In matters affecting our public school system the State law must govern.

In the case of Hancock v. Board of Education, 140 Cal. 561, the court said: "A city charter adopted under the provisions of the constitution has no effect whatever upon the existence or legal character of a school district formed under the general law. The school system is a matter of general concern, and not a municipal affair."

In Los Angeles School District v. Longden, 148 Cal. 353, the court in considering a similar subject said: "It should be emphasized that the power of a municipality, in this regard (dealing with school matters) can only run current with, and never counter to, the general laws of the state touching the common school system."

Again in McKenzie v. Board of Education, 82 Pac. 392, it was said: "The Legislature, under the Constitution, has provided a general system in regard to the common schools, and prescribed the duties of Boards of Education in counties and cities and counties of the state. The general laws passed by the Legislature are paramount, and, in case any provision of the charter of any city conflicts with the general laws as to matters pertaining to the public schools, the charter must give way to the general law. But the charter of a city, or city and county may make additional provisions, or provide for matters not enumerated in the general law, provided such provisions are not in conflict with the general law."

In Kennedy v. Miller, 97 Cal. 429, it was said: "The legislative declaration that every incorporated city is a school district does not import into the organization of the school district any of the provisions of the city charter, or limit the powers and functions which, as a school district, it has by virtue of the Political Code."

In view of the foregoing interpretation of the law by the Supreme Court of our State I am of the opinion that we must look to the general law of the State for the law which must guide your Board in dealing with the production of revenue for the conduct of our common schools.

Prior to the amendment of Section 6 of Article IX of the Constitution, as adopted by the people in November, 1920, there is no question but that the recommendation of a Board of Education or Board of School Trustees as to the amount of money necessary for the conduct of the schools of a particular school district was only directory upon the Board of Supervisors of the particular county or city and county in which that district might be, that is to say, that prior to the amendment of that year, irrespective as to what the recommendation of the Board of Education or of the School Trustees may be, the Board of Supervisors had authority, under certain limitation, to grant or to refuse the amount demanded. The amendment to Section 6 of Article IX, adopted in 1920, gave to the Legislature the power to provide for the levying of such tax as might be necessary for the support of the common schools. Under the authority of this amendment the Legislature in 1921 enacted laws to accomplish the end intended.

One of the laws enacted is Section 1612a of the Political Code, which gives authority to school trustees, city boards of education and high school boards to make, through the superintendent of schools of their respective counties or cities and counties, a budget for their respective schools, to present the same to the Board of Supervisors of their respective counties, whereupon it becomes practically mandatory upon the Board of Supervisors to adopt the budget as prescribed. In general the above mentioned section provides that each board of school trustees, city board of education and high school board shall have power and it shall be their duty to make annually during the month of June, a school budget showing the purpose for which the school district will need money and the amount of money that will be needed for each of said purposes for the next ensuing school year. This budget is to be approved by the superintendent of schools and transmitted to the Board of Supervisors of the county not later than ten days before the first day of the month in which the Board of Supervisors is required by law to levy the amount of taxes required for county and city and county purposes. The section further provides that the Board of Supervisors of said county, or city and county, must annually at the time and in the manner of levying county, or city and county taxes, levy and cause to be collected a district tax for each school district, whose budget shows a district tax to be necessary, and to fix a rate for such district tax, as will produce at least the amount of district tax money requested by the particular district. The concluding clause of the section repeals all acts and parts of acts which are not in harmony with its provisions.

The section mentioned is general in its terms and provides for a budget which will cover all purposes for which the school district will require money for the ensuing year.

As the question which you have asked pertains only to school buildings, repairs, supplies, etc., and not to what amount must be allowed for teachers' salaries I will give consideration only to the former matter.
